Atoms For Peace Plan Debate In UN Gets Top Priority

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. General Assembly Saturday cleared the Eisenhower-Dulles atoms-for-peace proposals for top-ranking debate in the U. N. The United States wants this to begin quickly.

Without any hint of objection, the 60-nation Assembly approved the item on which the United States has placed an urgent, priority tag. The Assembly assigned the question to the main political committee, generally considered the most important of the Assembly's seven working groups.

Dulles Warns France, Germany Must Be Rearmed

WASHINGTON (P)—Secretary of State Dulles warned the French government Saturday night that "Americans cannot afford to gamble" their safety and survival on defense programs which fail to assure genuine security.

Dulles and other American leaders have always insisted the German rearmament in association with the North Atlantic alliance is absolutely essential to an adequate defense of Western Europe.

His words in advance of departure for a crucial conference at London therefore provided stern warnings to French Premier Mendès-France that if Germany is not rearmed with French cooperation the United States will have to consider alternative security plans.

Dulles is due in London Sunday afternoon for talks with Mendès-France and British Foreign Secretary Eden on granting West Germany sovereignty as a step toward rearmament.

Dulles is going to London hopeful that Mendès-France will agree to some workable plan for fitting West Germany into the western defense system, not only militarily but politically as well.

1,000 Prisoners Riot In Chicago Jail, Balk At Food

CHICAGO (P)—About 1,000 prisoners rioted for 3½ hours at Chicago's city jail Saturday, then peacefully returned to their cells when they were promised reading material and better food.

Three prisoners were treated for minor injuries. The rioters made no effort to harm prison officials and policemen who mingled among them as they smashed furniture, broke windows and threw shoes, food and eating utensils.

The trouble, involving nearly a third of the 3,200 prisoners at the four-story House of Correction, broke out at the outset of the evening meal.

The prisoners balked at eating hotdogs for the third time in a week. Later, before going back to their cells, they told authorities of other grievances, including a lack of papers and magazines to read.

Authorities agreed to meet Sunday with representatives from the various cell departments to discuss all the grievances.

Nearly 400 policemen, using tear gas but avoiding any more violent means, helped quell the riot.

Most of the prisoners are serving terms for minor offenses. The longest sentence for any inmate now in the jail is five years.

None attempted to escape during the riot.

The disturbance started when about 500 prisoners protested the hot dog and split pea soup menu they were given at their evening meal.

FATHER ADMITS FATAL BEATING OF INFANT

CHICAGO (P)—Police said a young father today admitted he fatally beat his 9-day-old son.

Homicide detectives said Eddie E. Comiza, 23, related that he beat and choked the infant, Carl Fred, and threw him across a room in the Comiza home Wednesday in a fit of temper. The baby died in a hospital Friday after being taken there earlier in the day.

Police said Comiza wife, Alde-may, was not at home when the child was beaten.

Earlier, Comiza had told officers he injured the baby when he tripped and fell on him. Doctors said the baby suffered a broken arm, internal injuries and bruises.

Detectives Walter Noonan and Thomas Duffy said Comiza told them he was feeding another son, Eddie, 14 months, when Carl Fred began to cry. He said he picked up the child, hit him, choked him and threw him across the room to a couch. The child missed the couch, Comiza told the officers, and struck the floor.

Western Powers Gather In London; East Calls Asia-Africa Conference

Seek Peace Area From Cairo To Philippines

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The prime ministers of India and Indonesia agreed today to invite Asian and African countries—but possibly not Red China—to a conference aimed at extending a neutral "peace area" from Cairo to the Philippines.

Indian Prime Minister Nehru and Indonesian Prime Minister Soetomo, concluding four days of discussions, said the conference should be held at an "early date" following a meeting of prime ministers from five Colombo countries. These ministers, representing Ceylon, Burma, Pakistan, India and Indonesia, would arrange the conference's agenda.

Amnesia Victim Seeks Identity In Springfield, Ill.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (P)—City police Saturday were seeking clues to the identity of a 20-year-old woman who approached Patrolman Ray Sanford downtown and asked help in finding out who she was.

Detective Sgt. Clifford Baily said the brown haired woman with bluish green eyes told him her last recollection before coming here three days ago was being in a St. Louis bus station with a ticket for Springfield.

Baily said the ticket had Niles, Mich. stamped on the back. The contents of her billfold gave no identification of the 5-foot-4 woman weighing 145. It contained some pictures of youths of college age. She wore a white gold wedding ring.

The woman has been living in a rooming house but Baily said she would be retained at the police station.

Police checked with a Westville, Ind. hospital in which she said her brother was a patient. Police said hospital authorities related the man named had denied he had a sister. A picture with his name on it was in her bill fold.

She wore a yellow sweater, blue serge skirt, gray low-heeled shoes, light green shell-rimmed spectacles, trimmed with white gold and a white gold wrist watch.

On Jan. 30, according to documents released for publication by the State Department, Russia formally proposed a draft declaration by the United States, England, France, Russia and Red China renouncing the "use of atomic, hydrogen and other forms of weapons of mass destruction."

That was less than two months after Eisenhower advanced his idea for peaceful development of atomic energy.

The Russian proposal was made by Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov to Secretary of State Dulles in a closed door meeting at Berlin.

Early in the course of the Big Four foreign minister's meeting there.

Russia was pressing at that time for a big power role for Red China. Dulles had hoped that the Red China issue could be kept out of the atomic talks.

Postmistress Louise Kenney reported the post office had been broken in during the night and the burglary was not discovered until this morning. The safe's combination had been knocked off.

Entrance was forced by prying grill work from a back window. It was the third post office robbery in this area since last July. Post offices at Unity and Gale in Alexandria County were robbed earlier in the summer.

Postal Inspector O. W. Northworth of Carbondale, Ill., said a check showed that nothing but the $400 in currency had been taken.

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The prime ministers of India and Indonesia agreed today to invite Asian and African countries—but possibly not Red China—to a conference aimed at extending a neutral "peace area" from Cairo to the Philippines.

Indian Prime Minister Nehru and Indonesian Prime Minister Soetomo, concluding four days of discussions, said the conference should be held at an "early date" following a meeting of prime ministers from five Colombo countries. These ministers, representing Ceylon, Burma, Pakistan, India and Indonesia, would arrange the conference's agenda.

Nehru and Soetomo issued a joint statement saying the two agreed a "conference of Asian and African countries is desirable and would be helpful in promoting the cause of peace."

At a news conference later, Soetomo said the Colombo prime ministers probably would include questions of economic cooperation on the agenda, but most certainly would give prominence to political matters. Both meetings are expected to be held in Jakarta, Indonesia's capital.

Of the Colombo powers, only Pakistan attended the recent Manila conference and signed—with the United States, Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand, Thailand and the Philippines—the Southeast Asia treaty aimed at repelling Communist aggression.

Indian government sources have said Nehru has insisted Red China be excluded from any Asian-African meeting on the grounds the meeting should be strictly independent of any alignment with the Western powers or Communist bloc.

Soetomo was asked whether the Peiping government will be invited and answered, "not yet." Then he paused and said "nobody is yet invited."

Soetomo made these other points:

As many Asian-African countries as possible will be invited providing they "accept" the agenda drafted by the Colombo countries and cooperate in carrying it out.

Western powers with territory in Asia and Africa would not be invited, but "representatives of people in these areas might attend as observers."

In respect to this third point, Soetomo said he does not consider the Asian-African meeting "in concept anticolonial" alone.

Indian sources have said Nehru believes the invited nations should include, roughly, those now comprising the Arab-Asian bloc in the United Nations. This would exclude Israel, which is at odds with the Arab states, and South Africa, which is squabbling with India.

The Indonesian Prime Minister said in this connection:

"The list has to be carefully prepared, although there is no country which I do not want to include."

McCarthy Censure Report Described As Sharply Critical

WASHINGTON (P)—The report of the special committee that investigated censure charges against Sen. McCarthy was described by one senator Saturday as likely to draw critical conclusions on some counts but to leave the Senate itself whether censure is warranted.

This senator, who is not a member of the six-man investigating committee and who declined to be quoted by name, said he understands the committee's report will stop short of any outright recommendation that McCarthy be censured.

He said his information is, however, that it will contain some "sharply critical language" about the Wisconsin Republican. He declined to give the source of his information.

The bulky report, whipped into final shape by the committee of three Republicans and three Democrats yesterday, is to be made public Monday morning. It will be submitted to the Senate for decision at a session starting Nov. 8, the week after the Nov. 2 general election.

Official notice went out to all senators today, advising them of the Nov. 8 session. The telegrams were sent by J. Mark Trice, Senate secretary.

Chairman Watkins (R-Utah) said the committee report, adopted unanimously, offers a basis for a clearcut decision which the Senate "could vote up or down." He added, without giving any inkling of the contents of the report, that this would be its "final effect."

German Pride, French Prejudice Are Threats

LONDON (AP)—Foreign ministers of nine nations were assembling here Saturday for talks aimed at enlisting West Germany in the defense of free Europe for 50 years to come.

The British-organized conference opens Tuesday in the Music Room of Lancaster House, where Queen Victoria heard Chopin play his lilting melodies.

But today Allied disharmonies stemming from a century of conflicting German pride and French prejudice threaten the discussions.

The conference was called because the French Parliament last month rejected an Allied project to free and rearm West Germany within an unprecedented European army. The now-dead project was officially called the European Defense Community.

French Premier Pierre Mendès-France will face a more or less solid front of eight critical colleagues when the talks begin.

His colleagues are British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, U.S. Secretary of State Dulles, West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, Canadian Foreign Minister Lester B. Pearson, Italian Foreign Minister Gaetano Martino, Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak, Dutch Foreign Minister J. W. Beyen, and Luxembourg Premier Joseph Bech.

Mendès-France has advanced his own plan to bring West Germany into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. But just about all the other ministers, including Dulles, have pledged full support for a method advocated by Eden.

On several fundamental issues the French and British proposals agree. But on several extremely important questions they differ.

The British-French proposals start off with these things in common:

1. The gap left by French rejection of EDC should be filled and West German contingents should be brought into NATO.

2. The Brussels treaty of 1948—joining Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg—should be broadened to take in West Germany and Italy, both enemies in the last war. The purpose is to provide a European base for mutual security against any sort of aggression and for cooperation in political and other fields.

3. All must guard against the possibility of runaway German rearmament, without seeming to discriminate against Germany as a state.

4. Britain must play a big and active part in the new European grouping of seven nations so as to rule out the possibility of the Germans lord it over her European partners.

The Americans, and with them the Germans, Dutch and most of the other countries, support these common aims although none disguised disappointment and bitterness that Mendès-France has not put more of a fight for them in the French Parliament.

The main difference between the British-French plans:

1. France wants to strengthen the authority of the seven-nation Brussels grouping under the NATO umbrella. For one thing the Brussels alliance runs for 50 years. NATO has 15 years to go. But Britain wants the organs of NATO to get more powers.

2. France wants a Council of Seven to control German rearmament by controlling the contributions of its members; for example by setting ceilings for the forces.

Seven Die As Planes Collide Over Harbor

BALTIMORE (P)—At least seven persons perished Saturday in the collision of two airplanes over the Patuxent River entrance to Baltimore Harbor.

The shattering impact reduced both planes, one a six-passenger Navy craft and the other believed to be an Air National Guard fighter, to bits of wreckage. Rescue workers abandoned dragging operations after recovering a few parts of bodies.

In Washington, the public information office for the Anacostia Naval Air Station said six of the victims were air reservists from the Washington area who were aboard a twin-engine Beechcraft.

Their identities were withheld until next of kin could be notified.

Identity of the second plane was not immediately established.

Seize Ex-Convict In $17,500 Robbery Of Woman Relative

CHICAGO (P)—Police Saturday seized a 26-year-old ex-convict who they said admitted taking part in the $17,500 robbery-slugging of a woman relative a few hours earlier.

Heid without charge is Claude Dozier, who police said is on parole from a five-year sentence for grand larceny. A 23-year-old man named by Dozier as his accomplice in the robbery is being sought.

Dozier's aunt, Mrs. Bee Dozier, 65, was bound and slugged during the 4 a. m. robbery of the Hickory Hill sanitarium which she operates near Lake Zurich. She told police she recognized the masked robber who slugged her with a pistol, as her nephew.

Lake Zurich is in Lake County, about 40 miles northwest of Chicago.

Mrs. Dozier said the robbers awakened her and forced her to open a safe from which they took $6,518 in cash and two diamond rings she valued at $10,000. Three male employees also were bound by the robbers.

Commander Brennan appointed an auditing committee consisting of Paul Knox, Gerald Cook and John Doyle. The commander was authorized to sign contracts with the special activity program to be presented by the Post.

Jerseyville Starts Campaign To Buy Recreational Site

JERSEYVILLE — The tentative plans for forming a Jerseyville Recreational Club were drawn up at a meeting Wednesday evening at the court house in this city. The purchase of a tract of land comprising 83 acres at the intersection of Baxter and Hollow avenues was discussed and funds for the program and methods of raising them were considered.

The present plan calls for a golf course with a large size lake for boating and fishing with picnic and playground facilities and a clubhouse. The proposal also calls for the sale of building lots surrounding and facing the park area. The tract will extend from Hollow Avenue to Fairground Road.

The money raising campaign will begin immediately and calls for a goal of $50,000 for purchase of the site and making the initial improvements. The financing program calls for stock subscriptions in a development company to be formed, each subscription paying $100 at the conclusion of six months.

A committee was named to take charge of the fund raising program, and consists of Frank B. Pereboom, chairman, Attorney John Suddes, Edward Anderson, L. L. Anderson, Al Schleper, Clyde Hutton, Ralph Egelhoff, and Ivan Heiderscheid.

Local People To Handle Details Of Convention

Local arrangements personnel for the 10th anniversary convention of the Illinois Guidance and Personnel Association at MacMurray College Friday and Saturday, Oct. 1 and 2, have worked through the past 10 months under the direction of Miss Phoebe Wilkins, Personnel Counselor of MacMurray College.

Registration details will be handled by Spencer Lane, director of admissions and Henry Busche of the MacMurray faculty. Miss Elsie Evans, Dean of Girls, Jacksonville high school and Ralph B. Heiss, visiting counselor, Jacksonville high school have arranged for off-campus housing to care for the anticipated 600 convention guests. Campus housing is under the chairmanship of Larry Miller, director of admissions, Illinois College, and Elizabeth Rieck of the MacMurray faculty.

Social arrangements including the Hospitality Hour following the anniversary banquet have been completed by representatives of both Illinois College, under the direction of Genevieve McCracken, Dean of Women, Illinois College, and Ruth Brookhart of the MacMurray faculty. Following the conference President William K. Selden of Illinois College has invited convention guests to attend the Illinois College-Eureka football game Saturday, Oct. 2.

Dr. McKendree Blair and business manager Clarendon Smith of MacMurray have coordinated campus arrangements to handle the general sessions, clinic meetings, workshops and other conference meetings.

Mrs. Brockhouse Named President Of Bluffs Unit

The Bluffs Day Unit of Home Bureau met recently at the home of Mrs. Russell Meier, with 17 members and one guest, Mrs. J. C. Barnett of Winchester, present. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. James Baird, chairman. The pledge to the flag, and group singing of "Harvest Moon" opened the meeting. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved, and treasurer's report given. Roll call of fall flowers suitable for a centerpiece was given. There were reports by the following chairmen: Mrs. Floyd Hart, Mrs. Carl Pitt, Mrs. Luther Vortman, Mrs. Raymond Morris, Mrs. Dick Schone, Mrs. Lyle Bates. Communications were read. Announcement of the annual meeting at Jacksonville on Oct. 28, was made.

The nominating committee gave a report and the following officers were elected: chairman, Mrs. J. R. Brockhouse; vice chairman, Mrs. Oscar Merriman; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Donald Mullen. Plans were made for serving the Civic club a dinner and also for a bake sale on Oct. 2.

The major lesson, "Cloth Makes the Difference in Washing and Ironing" was ably given by Mrs. Luther Vortman. She tested various fabrics, and discussed their laundering procedure. A number of new fabrics were shown, and their care given.

The selected subject, "Use of Pictures and Mirrors in the Home," was given by Mrs. J. R. Brockhouse and Mrs. George Krusa. They showed different types of pictures suitable for home decoration.

The next meeting will be on Oct. 1, at the home of Mrs. J. R. Brockhouse.

Mrs. Hartman Gives Program Mexican Holiday

The Jacksonville Household Science Club met on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 21, at the home of Mrs. M. M. Blair, 629 Hardin, with Mrs. Homer Wood as assistant hostess. "A Mexican Holiday" was the title of the program presented by Mrs. Robert Hartman.

Using colored slides with appropriate commentary, Mrs. Hartman traced the route of a trip to Mexico enjoyed by her family last December. The contrast between the old and the new so typical of Mexico was revealed in the many beautiful and unusual pictures shown. Mrs. Hartman stressed that this country which is deeply rooted in antiquity is one of exquisite beauty as well as subtle complexities.

From Laredo the Hartman family headed south through Monterrey, visited briefly in Mexico City, and then concentrated its stay in such fascinating cities as Morelia, Patzcuaro, Guadalajara, Mazatlan, Leon and Queretaro. The crafts of many of these areas were illustrated in a complete display, including numerous handmade articles of clothing, jewelry, pottery, copperware, silver and lacquer work.

Mexico offers a constant change of scenery to her visitors. In December the colorful holiday festivals are a special attraction. The pictures shown by Mrs. Hartman included several festival scenes, as well as countryside views of the mountains, orange groves, haciendas, goat herds, butterfly net fishing, lava fences, sugar cane cultivation, and many others.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. A. W. Applebee, and the program for the afternoon was introduced by the program chairman, Mrs. Ernest Stout. An associate member, Mrs. R. A. Gates, and guests, Mrs. John Wood and Mrs. Arthur Wood, were welcomed. Mrs. Applebee and Mrs. Hartman presided at the tea table.

Mrs. Eddy Will Be Speaker At Area Session Sept. 30

Mrs. Sherwood Eddy, chairman of Christian World Relations for the Illinois Council of Church Women, will be a featured speaker at the fall meeting of the South Central Area next Thursday, Sept. 30, at 10 a. m. in the Methodist church in Petersburg.

Mrs. Carl Hoy, Chicago, president of the Illinois Council of Church Women, will give an address during the afternoon session. Her appearance before the group has significance because it is the first time a state president has ever attended a meeting in the South Central Area.

Mrs. M. S. Coleman, Virden, is the South Central Area vice president and will preside at both the morning and afternoon sessions.

Others from Jacksonville who expect to attend include Mrs. Friedrich Engelbach, president of the Jacksonville Council; Miss Ruth Bailey and Mrs. Nell Self Wandell.

MR. AND MRS. ALBERT L. FISHER

Miss Mary Lou Walker and Albert L. Fisher, both of this city, were united in marriage on Sunday, Sept. 5, at the Christian church in Woodson. They are now making their home in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Robertson Hostess At South Side Circle Meet

Mrs. W. L. Robertson was hostess at the meeting of the South Side Circle Club, Sept. 24 in the Pilgrim Room of Hamilton's Confectionery.

The president, Mrs. C. L. Rice called the meeting to order and offered prayer. During the business session which followed, it was voted to give $10 to the polo fund.

The program chairman, Mrs. E. A. Schoedsack presented Mrs. George Fuhr who gave the program "The Poet Speaks to Us." This paper was written by the Rev. John W. Collins of Centenary church and is a study of the poetry of the Bible, particularly that of the Psalms.

Sixteen members answered roll call. Guests were Mrs. Cary Andrus and Mrs. Beatrice Robertson.

Refreshments were served during the social hour.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 8 at the home of Mrs. C. R. Short, 306 N. Prairie, with Mrs. George Baxter assisting.

Public Library News Notes

Christian Education Week which begins today and Citizenship Day which was Friday, September 17, are recognized in twin displays of books and posters by the Jacksonville Public Library.

Among some of the recent additions which will be helpful in religious education are several books describing Hebrew life in the early Christian era. Dean's "The World Christ Knew" gives the social, personal, and political conditions and how these background factors influenced the teachings of Christ. "Everyday Life in New Testament Times," by Bouquest, is an interesting account, well-illustrated, of the kinds of houses, clothes, modes of travel, communications, meals, schools, and places of worship enjoyed by the people in the world around the Mediterranean in the 1st century, A. D.

Recent archaeological discoveries which confirm and give additional details to the Biblical accounts are related by Orlinsky to make the book, "Ancient Israel" really live for us. This is a history of the people who created the Bible and gave western civilization its earliest social, moral, and religious concepts.

Sunday School teachers and program directors will welcome "Biblical Costumes for Church and School," by Virginia Elicker, to answer the questions about what kind of costumes to use for a play and how to make them. This book has many sketches and easy directions for one to follow.

"Worship Services for Life Planning," by Alice Bays, contains thirty-three programs to aid young people in planning their lives and putting Christian principles into practice. Leaders, counselors, and teachers will find these services very helpful.

Books that furnish background material and aid in Bible study are Paterson's "The Book That is Alive," and Taylor's "Treasure of Free Men."

How can I learn to pray more effectively? The answer to this and many other questions on prayer can be found in "What Prayer Can Do," by the editors of Guideposts.

Because of the great interest shown in the World Council of Churches which held its Second Assembly last month in Evanston, Ill., library patrons will enjoy reading the ecumenical surveys in the vital areas of church life and one on the Council's main theme. This report compiled previously to the meeting is "The Christian Hope and the Task of the Church."

Besides these suggested titles, the public library has many other religious books and, also, the monthly magazine, "Religious Education" to aid those patrons interested in Christian teaching.

WOODSON SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC MONDAY, SEPT. 27

The annual Sunday School picnic of the Unity Presbyterian church at Woodson will be held at 6:30 p. m. Monday, Sept. 27, on the church grounds. Members of the Sunday school, church and friends are invited to attend the wiener roast and potluck style supper. Each family is asked to take wieners and buns sufficient for their family as well as food for the potluck supper.

To loosen peach skins, dip the fruit into boiling water for about one minute, then cool in cold water, remove skins and pit. Very ripe peaches may need even less than a minute of dipping.

Girl Scout Notes

Mrs. Darrell Wilson, Troop Leader of Brownie Troop No. 16, will attend the Girl Scout National Volunteer Training School at Pere Marquette State Park, Sept. 27 through Oct. 1.

The first National Girl Scout Senior Roundup will be held in 1956 from June 29 to July 11 at Highland State Recreational Park in Michigan. It will be the largest encampment ever held by the Girl Scouts of the U. S. A. with about four to five thousand girls and adults from every state and territory in the United States. It will give Senior Girl Scouts throughout the country an opportunity to know each other and to enjoy and use on a large scale the skills, resourcefulness, and techniques of living democracy which they have learned in Girl Scouting. Many of the now Intermediate Scouts in this Area will be Senior Scouts in 1956. Begin to make your plans now to attend the Roundup.

October 2nd! Mark the date on your calendar and spread the word as far as you can. It's the time of the first Illinois Prairie Girl Scout Council radio program on WJLS, Troop No. 49, under the guidance of Mrs. Robert Hartman, is making all plans and arrangements for this program. Congratulations to Troop No. 49!

A new book has been added to the office lending library—"Working With The Handicapped." It helps the troop leader to work with the exceptional child, whether she has a troop of handicapped or one or two handicapped girls. The Guide has special sections on handicaps such as deaf, tubercular, blind, cardiac, delinquent, etc. Each section contains a statement from an authority in the field, lists points to remember and ways to adapt the program.

Troop No. 32 of Franklin School is busily engaged in preparations for a cook-out Oct. 2 at Nichols Park. Their project at the moment is "sit-upons," oilcloth bags to carry their equipment and later to sit-upon around the campfire.

Pink, Blue Shower Honors Mrs. Graves

Mrs. Susie Graves was honor guest at a pink and blue shower Friday night at the home of Mrs. Harry Goolsby and Mrs. Frank Newby.

The gifts were arranged around a doll bed holding a baby doll. Games were played with prizes going to Mrs. Dorothy Hayes, Mrs. Matilda Still, Mrs. Lucille Stice and Mrs. Robert Fox.

Other guests were Mrs. Grace Clayton, Mrs. Carl Newby, Mrs. Frank Newby, Mrs. Dorothy Hayes, Mrs. Harry Goolsby. Those unable to come but sending gifts were Mrs. Jennie Underwood, Mrs. Ray Shepherd, Mrs. M. J. Souza, Mrs. Betty Graves, Mrs. Calvin Stanberry, Mrs. Carter Burriel and Mrs. Mae Burriel.

Mrs. Furry Entertains Circle One

Circle one of the First Presbyterian church Women's Association met Thursday afternoon, Sept. 23, at the home of Mrs. John Furry. Mrs. Lawrence Crawford is chairman of the group. The Bible study and devotion were given by Mrs. Arthur Ewert.

Mrs. Loren Moody, secretary program, gave a report as did Mrs. Hugh Shaw, treasurer. Mrs. Harold Swisher was appointed chairman in charge of the family night church supper on Sept. 29, for which the circle is responsible.

The program was provided by Mrs. Waldis Bealmer who told the group of her attending the Quadrant Meeting of Presbyterian Churchwomen held at Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind. in the early summer. Mrs. Bealmer used slides with her talk. She substituted for Mrs. E. C. Bone who has been ill and is reported improving.

Announcements made included the Bazaar on Oct. 29; the annual meeting of the Jacksonville district of the Springfield Presbytery which will be held all day Oct. 8 at the Northminster church here; United Council of Churchwomen district council meeting Sept. 30 at Petersburg; project for the World Community Day on Nov. 5 will be parcels for Peace and the Springfield Council of Churchwomen sent an invitation to all Jacksonville church women to attend their institute on Sept. 26 and 27.

At the close of the meeting the hosts served delicious refreshments.

Fete Mrs. Carlock Of Chandlerville At Surprise Party

CHANDLERVILLE — Mrs. Jack Carlock was pleasantly surprised at her home Wednesday evening when relatives and friends gathered to help celebrate her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. William Hammon planned the surprise party and served ice cream and cake to the guests. Mrs. Carlock's husband had taken her and their two daughters for a short ride while the guests assembled in the Carlock dining room. Upon arriving home and entering the house, the guests sang "Happy Birthday" to the honoree.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. William Hammon and Marsha Kathy and Billie Rae, Mrs. and Mrs. Carroll Carlock and three sons, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mancy, Mrs. Addison Marcy, Patricia Ann, Mrs. Allison Sue and Mrs. Estelle Regan.

Mrs. Jitsch Is Shower Honoree

The home of Mrs. Karl Franke in Cass county was the scene of a post-nuptial shower on September 7 honoring Mrs. Roscoe Jitsch. The many gifts were placed on the diningroom table under a very prettily decorated green and pink umbrella.

Guests were entertained with games and contests. At the close of the evening the hostesses, Mrs. Charles McLain, Miss Mardell Tenger and Mrs. Franke served dainty refreshments.

Married

MRS. LLOYD J. CARNES

MR. and Mrs. Chester L. Carls have announced the marriage of their only daughter, Dorothy, to Lloyd J. Carnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Carnes, of Augusta, Illinois.

The double ring ceremony was performed Saturday, September 4, by the Rev. Ira Williams, Jr., pastor of the Methodist church in Santa Rosa, New Mexico. After leaving New Mexico, the couple visited with friends in Arizona.

The bride is a graduate of the Virginia high school and attended Shurtleff college in Alton.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Quincy high school and served with the 3rd division in Korea.

Mr. and Mrs. Carnes will reside in Springfield, Illinois, where both are employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester L. Carls, parents of Mrs. Carnes, entertained the following at 6 o'clock dinner Wednesday evening, at their home southwest of this city honoring the couple: Mr. and Mrs. Myron Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carls.

Class Plans
Homecoming

The class meeting of the Gleaners of Northminster Presbyterian church was held Sept. 10 at the church. There were 11 members and three guests present. The president opened the meeting by having the class sing two hymns, followed with scripture.

After the business session a social hour was enjoyed and games were played. Prizes were won by Mrs. Huber, Lillie Sears and Harriett Pate.

The October meeting will be a Homecoming for all members and inactive members. A white elephant sale will be held at that time.

Lovely refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostesses, Elsie Bieher, Minnie Ornellas and Rose Aguilar.

Teatime treat: Make lengthwise cuts in the top of brown-and-serve rolls; insert a piece of cheese and one of partly-cooked bacon in each cut. Brush the tops of the rolls with melted butter or margarine, sprinkle with paprika and bake according to package directions.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN R. WING

Margie Gibson is Bride

Miss Marjorie C. Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Gibson of Normal, Illinois, former Jacksonville residents, and John R. Wing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Wing of Madison, Wisconsin, were united in marriage Sunday, September 19. The double ring ceremony was performed before a group of two hundred guests at two o'clock at the First Methodist Church in Normal by Rev. Gordon B. White.

The church altar was decorated with ferns, palms, baskets of white gladioli, white roses and white button and daisy mums and lighted tapers in candelabra.

A prelude of organ selections including "Liebestraum," "Melody in F," "Sweet Mystery of Life," "Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "Always" was played by Mrs. Ralph Hutchison of Jacksonville who also played the traditional wedding march. The soloist was Mrs. D. O. Floreth of Jacksonville who sang "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Hutchison.

Wears Lace and Satin

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Harold E. Gibson, wore a gown of imported French rosepoint lace over Skinner satin. The fitted bodice had a portrait neckline edged with a tiny nylon pleated ruffle, and long sleeves tapering to points over the wrists. The bouffant skirt was edged with deep pleated nylon ruffles forming into an Edwardian bustle and chapel train. The dainty bride's cap of matching lace was embroidered with iridescent sequins and pearls with a finger-tip length veil of imported French illusion. The bride carried a shower bouquet of white rosebuds and lily of the valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Judy Kurtz of Jacksonville, high school and Stephens College classmate of the bride, wore a ballerina length gown of ice blue silk taffeta with matching accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of pink rosebuds and pink carnations.

Fredric W. Liegeois, cousin of the bridegroom, of Middleton, Wisconsin, was the bridegroom's attendant. Ushers were Fred and Jon Cody of Jacksonville.

The tapers in the candelabra were lighted by Miss Charlotte Cody of Jacksonville. Little Miss Sharon Blum of Normal was the flower girl and Gary Blum of Normal was ring bearer.

Mrs. Gibson for her daughter's wedding wore an ice blue silk taffeta gown and pink hat embroidered with pearls. Mrs. Wing wore a blue-grey silk taffeta gown with pink hat. Both had white rosebud corsages.

Parents Entertain

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where the table was decorated with a beautiful four tiered wedding cake decorated with blue roses. The floral arrangement was of blue and white button and daisy mums with white candles in silver candelabra. The punch bowl was topped with a bouquet of blue and white button and daisy mums. Mrs. John Taylor and Mrs. Ernest Savage of Jacksonville cut and Misses Sheryl Savage of Jacksonville and Reta Wray White-neck of Viroen served the cake. Mrs. Hugh Gibson of Jacksonville and Mrs. Fredric W. Liegeois of Middleton, Wisconsin, poured the punch which was served with party sandwiches, minis and nuts.

Guests were registered by Mrs. T. C. Jenkinson of Jacksonville. Miss Frances Malone of Jacksonville displayed the gifts.

The couple left on a wedding trip through Oklahoma and Texas. They will return to the home of each for a short time. The bride wore for her going-away dress gray

Jersey princess style with pink pearl-embroidered collar and cuffs and a pink pearl-embroidered hat with a white rosebud corsage.

The bride graduated from Jacksonville High School and Stephens College in Columbia, Mo. The groom graduated from West High School in Madison, Wisconsin and was associated with his father in the Paul Wing Furniture Company and with Geo. W. Knoll of Chicago before entering service. His basic training was at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and then he was stationed at Fort Carson, Colorado, for four months. He is a Corporal with the Combat Engineers and will report at Fort Lewis, Washington on October 13 for assignment to the Far East Theater.

Among the out-of-town guests present were: Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Okey, Edwin Sayre, Dr. and Mrs. Victor Sheppard, Misses Mary Ohm and Margaret Fraser, Mrs. McKendree Blair, Dr. and Mrs. Oscar F. Gallo-way, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cody, Fred, Jon and Charlotte Cody, Mrs. T. C. Jenkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Williamson, Mrs. Bryne Wall, Mrs. T. U. Smirl, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Floreth, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Guetline and Doris, Mrs. Ralph Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Kurtz, Miss Judy Kurtz, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Savage and Sheryl, Prom Girard were Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Shutt, Earl Talkington, Mrs. Glen Leach, Mrs. Ada Wroughton, Misses Eva Rathgeber and Georgia Donaldson, Mrs. Mae McElvain, Dr. and Mrs. Howard Finney, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Harrison, Mrs. John Trojack, Mrs. Wilbur H. Brubaker, and Mrs. Mabel C. Metcalf, grandmother of the bride. From Viroen, Mr. and Mrs. Estel Wrightsman, Mrs. Wray Whiteneck and Reta Wray, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Krebaum, Miss Joanna Krebaum, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Paul Adams of St. Louis, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pritchett of Illinois. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Musson of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wing of Madison, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Fredric W. Liegeois, Middleton, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Liegeois of Madison, Wis.

GIFT SHOP PROFITS BUY NEW EQUIPMENT

Mrs. Claude Davis, left, stands next to Arthur J. French who received from members of the Passavant Hospital Aid's Gift Shop unit, the ultra modern incubator for the nursery on behalf of the medical and nursing service committee for the hospital's board of trustees. Others serving on the committee with Mr. French are J. C. Colton, L. Allan Watt, Winchester and Frank Fox of Virginia. Others in the above picture are Mrs. John Murray, co-chairman with Mrs. Davis and Miss Ange Joy, treasurer of the unit in charge of the hospital's Gift Shop.

The Gordon-Armstrong incubator is the latest available in such fields for critical cases or premature infants in need of incubator care. The four disc like objects on the sides of the apparatus enable the nurse in charge to care for the infant without opening the incubator. The small square object held by Miss Joy is an electric oxygen analyzer giving the percentage of oxygen in the incubator. The combined cost of the equipment was $525.00.

Methodists WSCS Of Concord Holds All Day Meeting

CONCORD—The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Concord Methodist church held an all day meeting recently at the church.

In the morning seventeen members joined in the annual church cleaning. Sack lunches were enjoyed at noon.

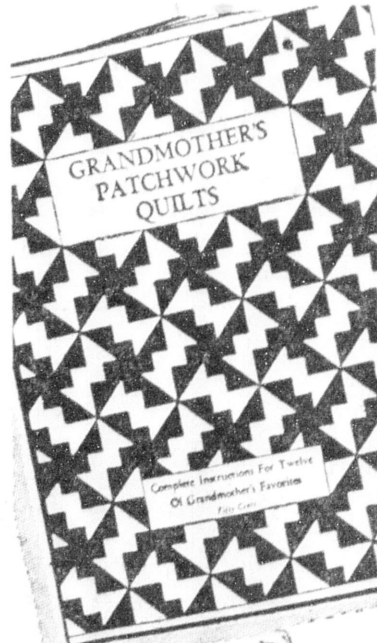

The regular monthly meeting was held in the afternoon with Mrs. Virgil Wezchoff presiding. Devotions were led by Mrs. Robert Schall assisted by Mrs. Julius Anderson, Mrs. Robert Kircher and Mattie Daniels.

During the business meeting, the group decided to take up a study course during the coming winter. It was also decided to accept the responsibility of taking charge of a church worship service this fall.

The six members who had attended the recent district meetings at Greenfield and Camp Point reported on those meetings.

Mrs. Aubrey Dunning and Mrs. Howard Hess presented the program, "Jesus Concern for the Cities."

Philathea Meets With Miss Mason

Members of the Mary Dewees Philathea class of the Central Christian church enjoyed a hamburger fry Tuesday evening in the yard at the home of Miss Martha Mason on West Lafayette avenue. Her assistants were Mrs. Coral Trabue, Mrs. Mildred Fairchild, Miss Sallie McKinney, Mrs. Lillian Phillips, Mrs. Martha McNeil, Miss Elnel Shortridge and Miss Blanche Spall.

After the meal in the open members adjourned to the Mason home for a business meeting conducted by the president, Miss Spall. Devotions were given by Miss Venna Butcher who had as her topic, Highways and Crossroads. Reports were given by various chairmen.

Announcement was made of a rummage sale to be held Nov. 27 which Mrs. Irene Hughes is chairman. The state convention of Philatheas will be held Nov. 2 and 3 in Quincy at the Methodist church. A number of others in the class will also attend with the delegate.

Greetings were sent to Mary Dewees class from the state Philathea president, Mrs. Violet Harriett of Champaign.

Junior Club Makes Ruling For Meetings

Members of the executive board of the Jacksonville Junior Woman's club met Thursday evening, Sept. 23, at the home of Betty Mathews. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mary Herr.

The secretary's report was read by Dorothy Floreth. Helen Riemann gave the treasurer's report. It was announced that the club had purchased two tickets from the MacMurray-Jacksonville Civic Music Association for use by students at the Illinois Braille and Sight Saving School.

Final reports were given on the Blue Jean Jamboree to be held Thursday, Sept. 30, at the MacMurray Cabin.

The president announced that dinner reservations for the monthly club meetings must be made at least two days in advance of the meeting and be made to the respective hostesses for each of the dinner meetings. If reservations are not in by that time members cannot be included in the dinner but are welcome to attend the meeting following.

At the close of the board meeting refreshments were served by the hostess to the following board members, Dorothy Ferry, Dorothy Floreth, Marg Shanahan, Mary Herr, Corrine Davidsmeyer, Shirley Williamson, June Carlson, Agnes Ingram, Juanita Herrin, Peg Dawson, Helen Riemann and Vivian Bonjean.

Miss Leonard Speaks To IEA In Springfield

Miss Emma Mae Leonard, delegate for the South Central Division of IEA to the N.E.A. Regional Instructional Conference, held at Minneapolis last April, was one of the speakers at the representative assembly meeting of the same division held Saturday, Sept. 25, in Springfield at the Abraham Lincoln hotel.

Miss Leonard discussed the work carried on at the Conference and pointed out the most important problems which the experts in the field of education recommended to be studied in line with the theme of the Conference, "Working Together for Better Teaching in These Times." she explained that the majority of experts agreed that the great educational needs in these rapidly changing times are three-fold: a need to improve techniques for a more functional school program; a need to teach the habit of critical thinking; a need to improve human relations. In practically every discussion or speech the importance of teaching moral and spiritual values and of developing good citizenship was emphasized. Progress in the teaching of the fundamental skills was also considered essential.

In general, Miss Leonard reported, every effort was made at the Conference to re-examine and find ways of improving instruction in both method and content.

WCTU MEETS AT SULLIVAN'S The WCTU will meet with Mrs. C. A. Sullivan, 902 Doolin avenue, on Tuesday, Sept. 28th, at 2:30 p.m. There will be an election of officers at this meeting.

PITTSFIELD — Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson, county nurse and Mrs. Ruby Booth, school nurse, for the Pittsfield Community School District No. 10, in conjunction with five physicians, Dr. Robert Maloney, Dr. James H. Rutledge, of Pittsfield, Dr. R. P. Wells of Pleasant Hill, Dr. W. W. Kuntz of Barry, Dr. J. A. Vargas of Griggsville and Dr. A. R. Denny of Perry, will be busy for some time with the tuberculosis testing program to be carried out in the high schools of the county during September and October.

The program was begun Thursday morning in the Pittsfield high school, where the seniors are given the tests each year. In all other high schools of the county all juniors and seniors are given the test every other year.

Garden Club Meets

Mrs. Karl Greife was hostess to members of the Garden Club at Spring Hill Lodge on the Illinois river near Florence at a one o'clock luncheon on Friday, September 24. Mrs. Paul Grigsby and Mrs. Green of Louisiana, Mo., spoke on "Flower Arrangements." A discussion by members of the club followed. In the spring, Mrs. Greife, president, had given members packages of zinnia seeds, and many prize flowers which they had grown from the seeds were exhibited at the meeting.

Sunday School Weiner Roast

The R. C. Gray Sunday School Class of the Methodist church held a Weiner and marshmallow roast at King Park on the evening of the 22nd. More than a hundred were present to enjoy the occasion.

Guests brought usable used clothing and toys, which will be repaired for Christmas giving. The men of the class will repair the toys and the women will look after the clothes.

The committee in charge of the event was: Mr. and Mrs. Don Giger, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Maynard King, co-chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bradburn; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Strickler; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Brown; Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Timmer; Mr. and Mrs. James Smith; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Dodd; Mr. and Mrs. James Shinn; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hayden; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Barton; Mrs. R. C. Gray and Miss Lorena Bueker.

The class has one of the largest memberships in this area who interest themselves in welfare and community projects quite often.

Groups Open Year

The Pittsfield Woman's Club will hold their first meeting of the year at the Community Center next Tuesday afternoon. Members will have the privilege of hearing Mrs. W. G. Burnsmier, of Mason City, Illinois, who will be their guest speaker. Mrs. Burnsmier is the new Twentieth District president. Mrs. Ralph Harp is president of the local club and Mrs. Miranda Vargas is vice-president and program chairman. Year books will be distributed at Tuesday's meeting, with well planned programs for the year.

Mrs. Ben Niebur was hostess to the first meeting of the Esther Circle of the W. S. C. S. on Thursday. Co-hostess was Mrs. James McHose. A group of twenty eight attended the meeting. The scripture reading was given by Mrs. Bert Whitten. The spiritual life program was given by Mrs. John Grimes and the book review by Mrs. Mabel Bolinger. Mrs. Clay Trick is chairman of the Esther Circle.

SHE MAKES A HIT

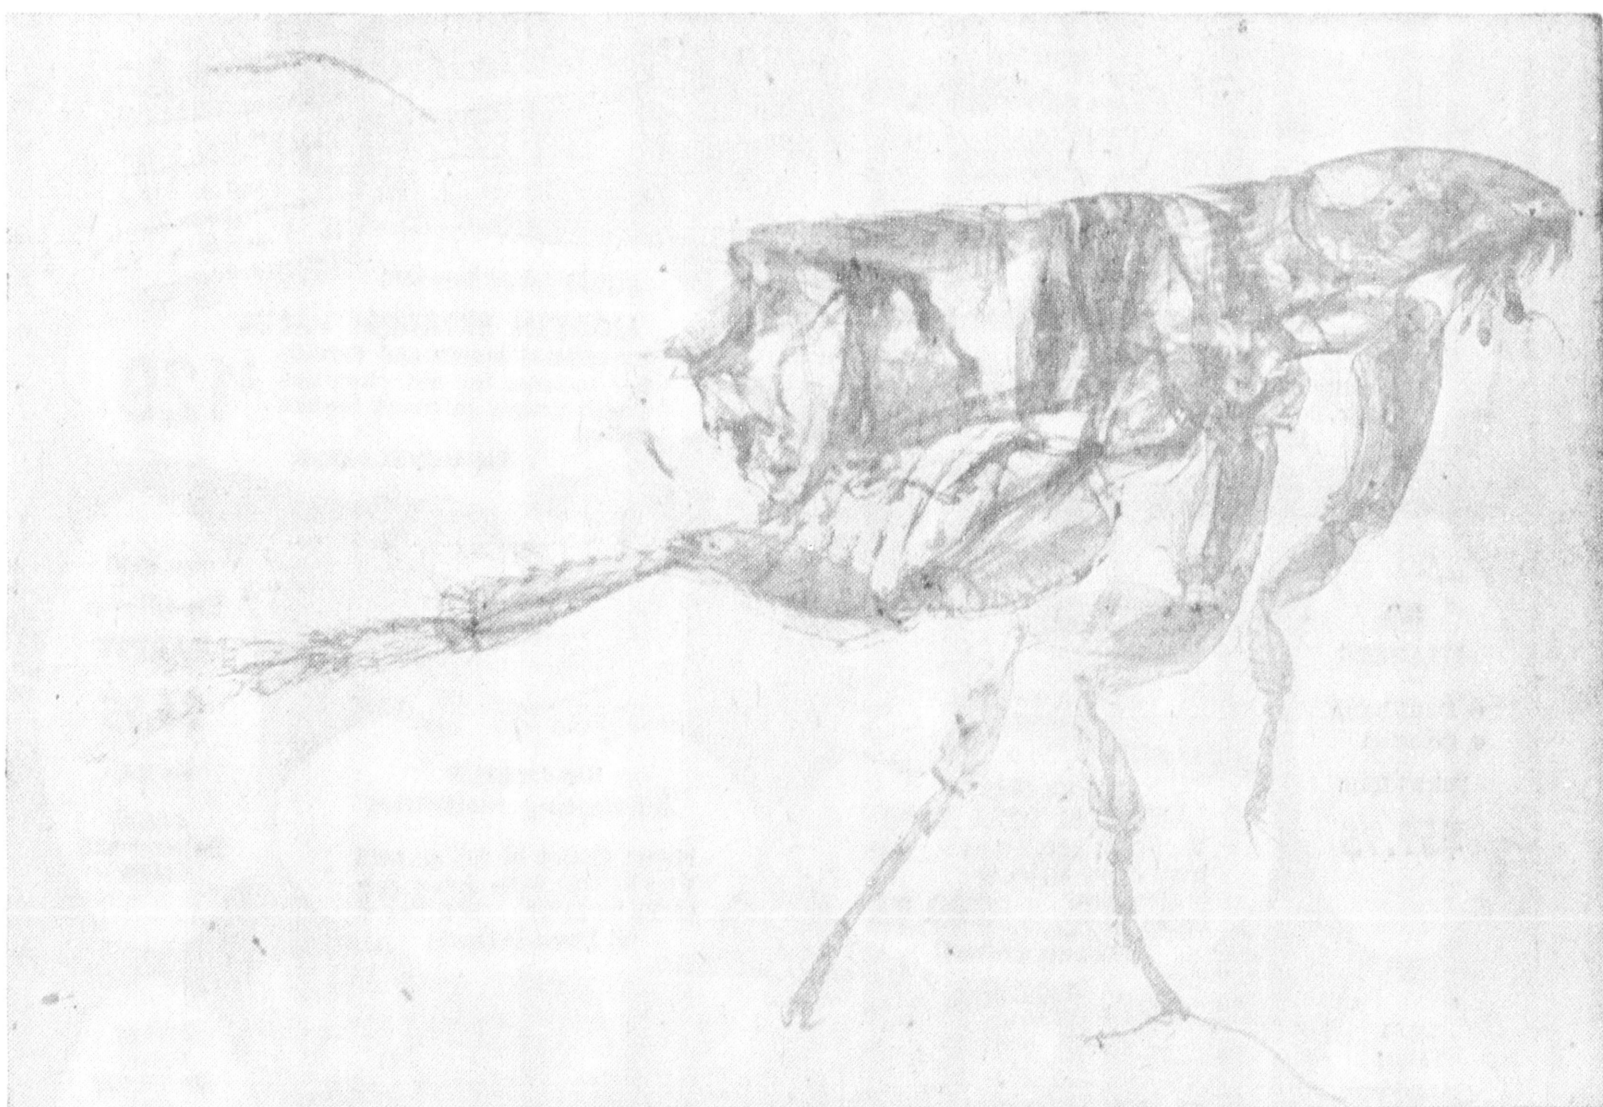

TO GROWNUPS, the name of Annie Oakley recalls the exploits of a quick-shooting cowgirl of the old west, but just ask any youngster who she is and he'll shout that she's "on television." Annie (Gail Davis) recently appeared in person with her sidekick sheriff Lofty Craig (Brad Johnson) at a day hosted by TV Guide magazine at Chippewa Lake park near Medina, O., and some 19,000 fans turned out to greet the pair. Included in the crowd were children from county welfare homes. Besides besieging Annie and the sheriff for autographs, the small fry enjoyed a closeup look at their favorites at the show.

The huge crowd had to be roped off when Annie and Lofty put on first of their three special performances for the kids.

NO WONDER YOUR DOG scratches himself so hard. The beastly creature shown here is the cause of it all—the common dog flea as seen through a new X-ray microscope at General Electric's plant in Schenectady, N. Y. New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—With only the briefest hesitancy, the stock market this week made a decisive rise to another new 25-year peak. The market glided ahead easily four days out of five.

The week's rise was the third in a row since the market began its recovery drive to erase losses suffered in the late August reaction.

The Associated Press average of 30 stocks gained $1.00 and stood at $137.00, the highest position it has attained since Oct. 28, 1929. Since June the market has been scored repeated new 25-year peaks. By and large, there was no adverse news all week-no selling excuses. Attention seemed to be such as earnings, dividends, merger rumors and announcements, and splits. Stocks responded well in all cases.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

CHICAGO (AP)—Hog prices declined this week, barrows and gilts ending 25 to 50 cents lower while sows were down around 50 cents. The hog top dropped to $19.75 Monday and Thursday, the first time the top has been under $20.00 since early February 1953. Receipts at Chicago were the largest for any week since May. Wholesale pork loins declined $3.00 to $4.00 while in the East the losses amounted to $7.00 to $8.00. The unsettled labor situation throughout the industry also proved a bearish factor.

In the cattle section steers wound up steady to 25 cents lower while heifers were steady to 25 cents down. Receipts were 10 per cent smaller than in the previous week. Top on steers was $29.00, paid for five loads of prime offerings. Cows mostly declined 50 cents to $1.00. Most classes of lambs held steady for the week, although the extreme top was off 50 cents. Receipts at Chicago were above the previous week. In the wholesale market good to prime spring lambs sold $3.00 to $4.00 lower.

CHICAGO (AP)—(USDA)—Salable hogs 2,500; choice 330-400 lb sows 17.75-18.50; lighter weights 18.75-19.25; 425-600 lb 15.75-17.65.

Salable cattle 200; slaughter steers steady to 50 lower; heifers steady to 25 lower; few high commercial cows held steady but general cow market 50 to mostly 1.00 lower; bulls about steady; choice and prime vealers steady, prime 1.10-1.40 lb 28.25-29.00; bulk choice and prime fed steers 23.50-24.00; most good to low choice steers 20.50-23.25; high choice and prime heifers and mixed yearlings 23.75-25.00; good and choice heifers 19.00-23.50; good beef bulls 11.50-14.00; most good and choice 17.00-22.00; good and choice feeding steers, yearlings and heavy steer calves 19.00-21.50.

Salable sheep 100; extreme top spring lambs 50 lower; yearlings weak to 25 lower; most sales good to prime native spring lambs 18.00-20.00; good and choice grade spring lambs mostly 18.50 down.

MEREDOSIA RESIDENCE SOLD AT AUCTION

A four room modern house in Meredosia was sold at public auction on the premises Saturday afternoon to Gilbert Henning of Meredosia on his bid of $2,925. The sale was conducted by Roy V. Wilson, administrator and agent for the James F. Mayes heirs. Vaught, Robinson and Foreman were the attorneys and Middendorf Brothers the auctioneers.

BEANS REMAIN STEADY IN SLOW MARKET

By WILLIAM FERRIS
CHICAGO (AP)—In a slow and dreary trade all grains except soybeans drifted lower on the board of trade this week. Soybeans just about held steady, winding up with fractional gains.

Largest losses were in rye, subjected to fairly heavy profit taking in view of their sharp price advance over the preceding several weeks. Among other cereals, wheat was weakest although selling pressure never became very heavy.

Wheat closed the week 2 1/4-3/4 lower, corn 1 3/4 - 1 1/2 lower, oats 1 1/4-3/4 lower, rye 3/4 - 9/4 lower, soybeans 1/2-3/4 higher, and lard 25 to 33 cents a hundred pounds lower.

The July wheat future, which represents the 1955 crop, sold off with the 1954 crop months. This delivery is not selling far above the $2.00 mark.

An acreage allotment of 55 million acres, stiffest in the nation's history, applies to 1955 crop wheat. That compares with an allotment of 62 million acres for this year's crop.

Allotments are based on the total supply of wheat in relation to a normal supply. Two factors which discouraged buying in corn were the possibility of imports of low grade Canadian wheat for livestock feed and the belief marketings of cash corn will be heavy because some farmers over planted their acreage allotments and their corn will not be eligible for the government loan.

Soybeans were aided by technical factors—the market was in a stronger technical condition after a drop of 10 1/4 to 12 cents in the preceding week.

IN MEMORY OF JESSE W. DECKER

September 27, 1931
He is away, and yet he is always so near.

His presence we feel, we know it is ever here.

In life he gave us kindness, love, never denied;

He was our bulwark, he was ever by our side.

He was good, and kind, and ever generous, too—

(Have you forgotten the kind things he did for you?)

Though many years have passed there are times we are sad

Thinking of his voice, his smile, the virtues he had.

So it is with life, we live, we love, and we learn.

And when away from our loved ones, for them we yearn.

But remembering it is God's will, and His way.

We find peace, and courage, in our hearts day to day.

He dwells in that realm, where he is in peace we know.

It being a haven where our loved ones do go.

Just away, that's all, he still lives in the heart.

Spiritually from him we are never apart.

Walking through life's garden, as truly it is done,

We know he is with us, within our hearts, as one.

Ohio State's Touchdown Twins Spark 23-0 Win

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State turned loose its touchdown twins, Hopalong Cassidy and Bob Watkins, for two scores each Saturday to overwhelm undermanned Indiana 23-0.

The Hoosiers, with a sophomore-dotted lineup, fought the highly favored Bucks to a standstill through the first half, but Ohio converted three breaks into touchdowns in the late going against the tiring invaders to turn it into almost a rout.

Cassidy scored the first touchdown on a four-yard pincushion sweep around end with only seven seconds to go in the opening quarter. He raced 68 yards after plucking a fumble out of the air for the first of Ohio's two last-period scores.

Watkins scored on an eight-yard sweep around left end in the third period and on a 12-yard dash through the middle for the final score.

Indiana had 18 first downs to Ohio's 15, but did most of its gaining between the 20-yard lines. The Hoosiers were unable to dent the Buckeye defense when in scoring territory.

Iowa Scores 14-10 Win Over Spartans

By L. E. SKELLEY
IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP)—Elden Matheson, a junior halfback who carried the ball only four times a year ago for 42 yards, raced Saturday to rally Iowa to a spectacular 14-10 victory over Michigan State's Rose Bowl football champions.

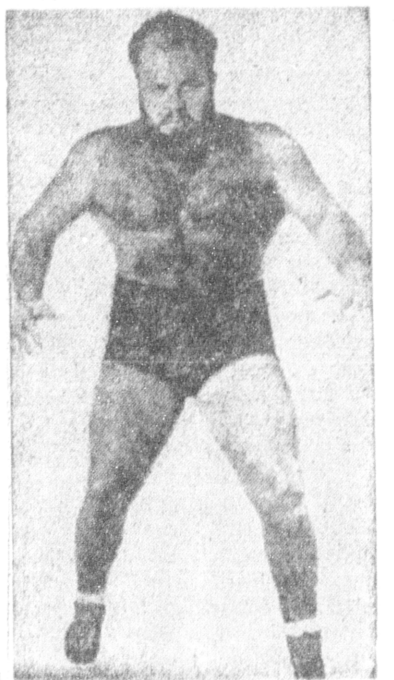

With his team behind 10-7 as the result of a smashing Michigan State third-quarter drive and only a bit more than six minutes left in the game, Matheson grabbed a punt on his 45 and sped down the west sideline. He was only three yards away from his coveted goal when he was overhauled by Spartan Carl Nyström.

Shocked Michigan State grudgingly gave up only 1½ yards in three Iowa thrusts. But the Spartans couldn't restrain the Iowa line and quarterback Jerry Reichow, on the vital fourth down, went over for the winning points.

Wrestling Returns To Town October 11

Ivan Rasputin is very much in the foreground these days. The 245-pound bearded wrestler's most dreaded grip to his foes is the bear hug that squeezes the breath out of an opponent.

The 39-year-old veteran certainly doesn't look like a wrestler. He is five feet eight and scales at 245. However, he remains the answer to those who doubt wrestling is a rough sport. He was blinded for two years after suffering trachoma and was hospitalized for three years with a broken back.

Rasputin isn't his real name. Once he was offered $200 to reveal his correct name but he refused. He says he grew the beard in 1938 on a bet and folks said he looked like Ivan Rasputin. The name stuck with him and today he isn't sorry. Several times he has appeared on TV and radio programs with the announcer trying to pry his correct name out of him but they failed. He remains Ivan Rasputin.

He now makes his home in Long Beach, Calif., after being banished around Chelsea, Mass.

Rasputin will be one of the main attractions on the Knights of Columbus card appearing at the high school gym October 11. He takes on Argentina Rocca in the feature attraction. Other matches include a midget match involving Irish Jackie Bradley from Dublin, Ireland, Cowboy Bradley from Boise, Idaho, Alson on the first card of the coming season.

It is a tag team affair pitting Bert Rubi and Juan Hernandez against Bernito Gardini and Rudy Kay.

UCLA Bruins Top Kansas 32-7

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP)—The UCLA Bruins, using bruising power, racked up three touchdowns in the first quarter and two more in the fourth Saturday for an impressive 32-7 victory over Kansas' Jayhawkers.

An estimated 25,000 fans saw the start of what appeared to be a rout for the Pacific Coast Conference defending champions.

UCLA turned a Kansas fumble and a pass interception into touchdowns and ground out a genuine 56-yard scoring drive the first three times it got the ball.

But Kansas came to life in the second period. Halfback Ralph Moody, individual star of the day, scored on an 82-yard punt return that fired up the Jayhawkers.

They then shifted their defense and played on a par with the big UCLA bruisers.

But it was only a noble gesture on the part of the Kansans, and in the last period the Californians' power suddenly burst out again.

Midway of the period center Steve Palmer blocked George Remsburg's punt and tackle Jack Elena gathered in the ball on the Jayhawk 26. He lumbered across the goal easily.

Brooklyn Clinches Second With 10-5 Win Over Pirates

BROOKLYN (AP)—Brooklyn's racing National League champions unleashed a home run barrage Saturday and clinched second place in the 1954 pennant race. The Dodgers, with Carl Furillo, hitting two home runs and Duke Snider and Sandy Amoros one each crushed Pittsburgh 10-5.

Oklahoma Beats TCU 21-6 In Final Minutes

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Oklahoma, the nation's No. 1 football team, exploded with two touchdowns within five minutes in the last quarter to come from behind and whip underrated Texas Christian 21-6 Saturday.

The Sooners lost their star split T quarterback, with a broken shoulder just before the half and sophomore Jim Harris took over skillfully to direct OU to its 11th victory and the second this year.

TCU was rated a three-touchdown underdog and looked like it had the upset of the day in the making. Sparked by its amazing stable of sophomores, TCU drove to the Oklahoma eight when the final gun went off.

Harris scored two of Oklahoma's touchdowns, one on a 69-yard punt return. Bob Herndon added the other tally on a 10-yard drive through center after halfback Buddy Leake had set up the score with a 50-yard punt return.

A safety gave TCU its first points and Charles Curtis and James Cooper made the Frogs' two touchdowns.

The victory proved costly for Oklahoma because it was learned after the game that Calame's injury may keep him out for the rest of the season.

With the crowd of 50,000 mandating and screaming, the Sooners came back fast for their two big touchdowns. The tally that pulled Oklahoma up to 14-6 came at the end of a 75-yard march sparked by fullback Bob Burris who made smashing runs of 12 and 19 yards. Harris then rammed two yards to score.

Herndon's 10-yard touchdown jaunt and Leake's final conversion concluded the scoring.

Cubs Hand Reds 4-2 Setback

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Cubs knocked the Cincinnati Redlegs out of a fourth-place tie with Philadelphia Saturday by taking a 4-2 decision. Jim Davis held the Redlegs hitless through the last three innings in relief of rookie Al Lary to earn credit for the victory that dropped the Redlegs half a game behind the Phillies.

WEIGHED $52 PLUS

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Gary Williams won a contest with the help of the Richmond International League baseball team.

It happened at a "pot of gold" contest at the ball park. Kids were told they could have all the coins they could stuff in their pockets in 20 seconds from a wheelbarrow loaded with money. The baseball players taped Gary's socks over his trousers, money went into his waist and netted $52.

51st World Series Opens Wednesday In Giants' Polo Grounds

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Cleveland's "big three" pitching staff, plus the tradition of American League success, make the Indians 17 to 10 favorites over the charged-up New York Giants in the 51st World Series opening Wednesday at the Polo Grounds.

Bob Lemon, Early Wynn and Mike Garcia form a solid front line of Cleveland starters for this annual best-of-seven series although the Giants have no apologies to make for Sal Maglie, Johnny Antonelli and Rubens Gomez.

No National League team has won a series since Enos Slaughter dashed home with the decisive run for the St. Louis Cardinals against the Boston Red Sox in the seventh game in 1946. Six of the last seven, who to the New York Yankees, who finally were dethroned by Cleveland in '48. In the over-all standings, the American has a 33-17 edge over the National.

Leo Durocher's inspired Giants, led by Willie Mays, are attracting solid support from their long suffering fans who are popping out of subway exits with plenty of the long green in their fists. The Giants' spectacular job of deflating favored Brooklyn excited the fans as much as the "miracle team" of 1951.

Cleveland was slow to awaken to the Tribe this season but hit a peak with a booming crowd of 34,587 the day the Indians beat the Yanktix twice and practically nailed down the flag. The big Municipal Stadium holds the all-time record of 86,288 for the Sunday game against the Boston Braves in the 1948 series and that probably will be matched next Sunday.

Both clubs look forward to record player cuts with the big Cleveland Stadium and the 55,000 seats in the Polo Grounds. Each winning share may get to $10,000 and each loser should get about $8,000. The players, of course, cut in on only the first four games. Last year's Yankee slice of $8,280 stands as the best yet.

All games start at 12 noon (CST) with the schedule calling for the first two at the Polo Grounds, Wednesday and Thursday, and the next three if it goes past four at Cleveland Friday, Saturday and Sunday. They'll come back to the Polo Grounds for games Monday and Tuesday if no club has won four.

Once again the nation will watch the entire series over television (NBC) with 155 stations set. A network of 920 radio stations (Mutual) will beam the action to the U.S., Canada, Latin America, Alaska and Hawaii. A special Armed Forces radio service also will short wave the series to military posts throughout the world. The TV rights cost one million dollars and the radio $200,000 with the money going to major leagues' central fund which supports the player pension plan.

Cleveland goes into the series with the proud record of never having lost, beating Brooklyn in 1920 and Boston in 1948. It's the first series for Lopez as manager. The Giants have a 4-9 mark in series competition, last winning in 1933 from Washington. Durocher is 0-2, losing at Brooklyn in 1941 and at New York in '51. Cleveland and New York never have met in a World Series, but the Giants had a 13-8 edge in the spring exhibitions.

There are sharp differences between the two parks. The Polo Grounds is short down the foul lines (279 ft. in left, 257 ft. in right) but it has an enormous center field 400-feet deep. The Cleveland Stadium, with its temporary outfield fence, is 320 ft. in left, 330 ft. in right and only 410 to center. Many balls that would be caught in the Polo Grounds in deep center will be home runs in Cleveland and many of those high pops that barely graze the scoreboard on the way down for Polo Ground homers will be soft outs in Cleveland.

On the Badgers' first play after the next kickoff, Stand Andrie, a guard, picked off a Wisconsin fumble in midair and raced 24 yards to score.

A third string halfback, sophomore John Bridgeman, sparked the scoring in the final quarter against Marquette reserves. Once he grabbed a punt and raced 77 yards in a brilliant return to score. He counted again on a six-yard burst around end.

N. Jacksonville In 13-2 Victory

North Jacksonville grade school annexed their fourth straight softball victory by defeating South Jacksonville 13 to 2 in a game played Friday at the north side diamond.

Henderson and Nunes scattered six hits and received good support from their teammates. Riggs was picked for twelve hits and received wobbly support as his teammates committed seven errors.

Hynes led the North Jacksonville attack with three hits.

Wisconsin Swamps Marquette 52-14

By JACK BURKE
MADISON, Wis. (AP)—A power-packed Wisconsin football team that scored in every quarter swamped Marquette 52-14 before a shirt-sleeved crowd of 52,819 in the season opener Saturday.

The Badgers counted twice in the early stages to lead 13-0, but Marquette snapped back spectacularly to take a 14-13 lead. After that, however, the Badgers climbed ahead 20-14 and won going away.

Clary Bratt, tall senior halfback, scored three times for the Badgers. He opened the touchdown parade by taking a 29-yard pass from quarterback Jimmy Miller and twice taking pincushions to go all the way—once from 17 yards out and another time from the five.

Marquette counted twice within the space of one minute in the second quarter to grab the lead momentarily. Ron Drzewiecki, Marquette's veteran halfback, found a hole at tackle and sprinted 59 yards untouched for the first touchdown.

On the Badgers' first play after the next kickoff, Stand Andrie, a guard, picked off a Wisconsin fumble in midair and raced 24 yards to score.

A third string halfback, sophomore John Bridgeman, sparked the scoring in the final quarter against Marquette reserves. Once he grabbed a punt and raced 77 yards in a brilliant return to score. He counted again on a six-yard burst around end.

White Sox Pound Orioles 11-0 In Year's Finale

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Chicago White Sox pounded four Baltimore Orioles pitchers for 13 hits Saturday and coasted to an 11-0 victory over the Orioles behind Billy Pierce's five hit hurling. It was the American League season finale for both clubs.

Michigan Tops Washington 14-0

SEATTLE (AP) — The grinding power of Michigan checkedmate the Washington aerial circus Saturday and Lou Baldacci tallied twice to give the highly favored Wolverines a 14-0 victory in an intercollegiate football game.

Washington drove the crowd of 41,300 frantic with its passing and at times had Michigan in the same condition. Southpaw quarterback Sandy Lederman lashed the Big Ten team with the tosses that carried Washington almost to touchdowns five times.

But the Washington threats all died—twice on the Michigan 11, three more times inside the 26. The game nearly wound up in a riot. Lederman was trying to run with the ball when the gun sounded and one official rushed in and tried to take the pignik. Players poured into the field from both benches but the fracas ended without a battle and with the official in possession of the ball.

A fumble recovery in the opening quarter by tackle Art Walker set up the first Michigan tally. Baldacci immediately toe-dancing through the Washington line for 21 yards and the score. Michigan marched 85 yards to its second counter after the third quarter kickoff, Baldacci plunging the last yard. Duncan McDonald converted twice.

National Football League Begins 35th Season Today

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The National Football League inaugurates its 35th season Sunday with six games, including defending champion Detroit against the improved Chicago Bears and eastern titlist Cleveland against its number one challenger, Philadelphia's Eagles.

Other games find Los Angeles at Baltimore for a joust with the rejuvenated Colts, the New York Giants at Chicago against the Cardinals, Pittsburgh helping Green Bay open its 35th season in the Wisconsin football hotbed, and San Francisco and Washington tussling at Kezar Stadium in the West Coast city.

Five new coaches—four have experience in the league—will pace the sidelines in these first of 72 games—two on Saturday afternoons, nine on Sunday nights and the rest on Sundays. The regular season closes Dec. 19 in Cleveland with the Browns meeting Detroit in a game originally scheduled for Oct. 2, but set back because of the World Series.

The championship game, barring ties in either of both eastern and western divisions, is slated for Dec. 26 in the home of the Eastern champion.

The two divisions: EASTERN: Cleveland, Detroit, Philadelphia, San Francisco, New York, Washington, Chicago Bears, Pittsburgh, Green Bay, Chicago Cardinals.

WESTERN: New Orleans, Baltimore, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Green Bay, Chicago Cardinals.

New coaches are Wilbur Ewbank at Baltimore after several years as an assistant to Paul Brown at Cleveland, Jim Lee Howell replacing the veteran Steve Owen with the Giants, Walt Kiesling taking over at Pittsburgh for the resigned Joe Bach, Joe Kuharich succeeding Curly Lambeau at Washington, and Lisle Blackburn jumping from Marquette University to Green Bay.

Strictly on exhibition game records, Detroit, San Francisco and Los Angeles figure to battle it out for the western title, with Cleveland, hurt by the retirement of several stars, facing a serious challenge from Philadelphia in the east. The Giants also could pose a threat to the three year reign of the Browns as eastern champions.

Marty Furgol Leads In "World Series Of Golf"

WASHINGTON (AP) — Veteran Marty Furgol of Lemont, Ill., shot into a two-stroke lead at the three-quarter mark of the $40,000 "World Series Of Golf" Saturday with a third straight subpar round that gave him a 54-hole total of 204—nine under par.

Playing the same steady golf that has characterized his game since the start of the tournament at Congressional Country Club, he came home with a two under par 69 while Gene Littler of Santa Monica, Calif., with whom he was tied at the start of the day, soared to a 75 and fell six strokes behind.

Francis (Bo) Winkler of Oklahoma City, moved into the runner-up spot with a one under par 70 that gave him a total of 206 at the halfway mark.

Deadlocked for third were two Californians, Bob Rosburg of San Francisco and Bud Holscher of Santa Monica, each with 209.

ARDMORE, Okla. (AP) — Strong-hitting Jackie Pung of Honolulu zoomed to a four-stroke lead after the third round Saturday of the Ardmore Women's Open Golf Tournament.

The Hawaiian matron carded a four-under-par 70 over the difficult Country Club course for a 45-hole total of 222 and was a solid choice to bring down top money.

However, Mrs. Pung must continue her brilliant play to stand off the challenge of Betty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill., and Beverly Hanson and Louise Suggs both from Cincinnati.

Miss Suggs was in fourth place at 228. She trailed Miss Berg who shot a 75 for a 226 total and Miss Hanson who shot a 73 for 228.

Yankees Tounce Athletics 10-2

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Yankees made the most of 10 hits Saturday night to hang a 10-2 defeat on the last-place Philadelphia A's. Alie Reynolds was the winner although he went only until the sixth inning. The A's scored one of their runs on a home run by Lou Limmer.

Fighting Penn State Upsets Illini 14-12; Bailey, Moore Shine

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Penn State, sharp defensively and with a tornado-like attack led by quarterback Don Bailey and halfback Lenny Moore, subdued highly favored Illinois and its sputtering runners to score a 14-12 upset Saturday.

Although J. C. Caroline and sophomore Abe Woodson, the Illini's heralded ball carriers occasionally broke loose for good gains, they were grounded by Penn State's great ends and tacklers at times when it would have counted most.

It was Illinois' first opening season loss since being whipped by Camp Grant (Ill.) in 1943. Jesse Arnette 6-5, 228—pound junior and for Penn State, recovered Mickey Bates' fumble on the Illinois 28 in the first quarter and Bailey eventually shot a 34-yard scoring pass to Arnette. Jim Garrity booted his first of two critical extra points.

The Nittany Lions added their fourth seven points in the second half when Bailey set it up with a 30-yard run, longer of the day. He then broke loose for six yards and was about to be tackled later, called to Moore, who sped the final 12 to score.

Quarterback Em Lindbeck, on a screen pass to Woodson, was good for a 20-yard Illinois touchdown in the first four minutes of the game.

Illinois tallied again in the third, Woodson zigzagging the final 17 yards to cap a 77-yard drive.

But after the first touchdown, Caroline's try for point was wide. And on the second, Bob Wiman's attempt hit the horizontal bar and bounced back.

Penn State displayed midseason form and was so strong down the middle that Illinois fullback Bates seldom took a shot at it. The result was that the ends and linebackers concentrated most attention on the flanks, and Caroline and Woodson usually found a gang waiting to ambush them.

Roosevelt Greir, Earl Shumaker, Otto Kneidinger, Frank Reich and ends Arnette and Garrity were the defensive giants for Penn State. Illinois had a net rushing gain of 155 yards and Penn State 279. The Illini completed 4 of 10 passes for 77 yards and the Lions hit on 3 of 13 for 39.

Lindbeck's 23-yard return of a stolen pass from Bob Hoffman touched off the Illini's first-period score. But up until they scored again in the third, the closest they could come to the Lions' goal was the 47.

Lindbeck's 33-yard pass to sophomore end Chuck Butler and runs of 9 and 14 yards by Caroline moved Illinois along in its drive for the third-period tally by Woodson. In the same quarter, Caroline sprinted 22 and Wiman barreled 16 as Illinois went to the 11. But a 15-yard penalty ended the threat.

Alouettes Whip Argonauts 28-7

MONTREAL (AP) — Alex Webster, a hard charging back from North Carolina State, scored two touchdowns Saturday as the Montreal Alouettes methodically ground out a 28-7 victory over the Toronto Argonauts to consolidate their hold on first place in the Big Four Football League.

The victory, before 18,104 stadium fans plus United States television viewers, moved Montreal four points ahead of second place Toronto and Hamilton in the league standings.

The Als had little trouble with the Argos after the first quarter Montreal led 12-7 at the half.

DOUGLAS USED AS PAWN, MECK CLAIMS LEWISTOWN, Ill. (AP) — GOP senatorial nominee Joseph T. Meek Saturday charged Harry Truman and Adlai Stevenson with using Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) as a pawn to checkmate the Eisenhower administration.

Meek and Douglas are opponents for the Nov. 2 election. Speaking at a rally at the Fulton County Fairgrounds, Meek said: "The underlying intent of the Democratic leaders who are trying to delude the voters of Illinois is not to show a real loyalty to President Eisenhower, but to get a Democratic majority in Congress, so that Eisenhower can be discredited and defeated in 1956."

The Truman-Stevenson attempt to sell Douglas as an Eisenhower man is nothing but a conspiracy to pave the way for defeating our great President two years from now."

I.S.D. Tigers Pound Oklahoma Deaf 46-0; Rampley Scores Four

Coach Jim Spink's Illinois School for the Deaf Tigers had an easy time yesterday afternoon as they defeated visiting Oklahoma deaf 46-0 on the local field.

Tiger fullback Jack Rampley took the opening kickoff and raced 80 yards to score. Duncan fired a pass to Zachariasen and the Tigers led 7-0. A few plays later, after Oklahoma lost the ball on downs, Duncan fired a pass to Rampley and the fleet back raced into the end zone for his second TD of the day and I.S.D. had a 13-0 lead.

Before this free-scoring first period was over, Rampley had four touchdowns and I.S.D. had a 26-0 lead.

Rampley's third TD came on an end run and his fourth was a 35-yard run through the middle. Phelps added the point after touchdown on this fourth TD to give the Tigers a 26-0 lead at the end of the first period.

The second period saw Coach Jim Spink substitute freely with the Tiger second and third teams playing the entire quarter. The teams exchanged the ball several times as they went up and down the field but neither side could score.

The Tigers added their final tally in the last period as freshman back Mehrling scored his second touchdown of the day. With third and fourth string linemen in the game, Middlebrook and Mehrling continued their fine running and Mehrling scored the TD.

Oklahoma threatened for the first time in this final quarter. However, Tietloff intercepted an Oklahoma pass on his own two yard line in the final seconds to halt the visitor's threat.

Coaches Spink and Brasel used a total of 45 players and men like Rampley, Thrash, Embree, Zachariasen, Duncan, Kane saw very little action from the first period on.

Score by quarters: Oklahoma 0 0 0 0—0 I. S. D. 26 7 7 6—46ling champion.

Miss Universe, Benson Share Dairy Show Honors

CHICAGO (AP) — Top billing at the International Dairy Show, opening Oct. 9 in the International Amphitheater, will be shared by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson and Miss Universe.

Miss Universe is Miriam Stevenson, 21-year-old farm girl from Winnebago, S.C. She will be queen of the dairy show's Guernsey division at the invitation of the American Guernsey Cattle Club of Peterborough, N.H.

Secretary Benson will dedicate a new 188,000-square-foot addition to the amphitheater and will make a formal address at the opening of the show.

Cattle from 27 states, Canada and Cuba have been entered in the eight-day show, described as the largest exhibition of its kind in the world.

STATE CORN PICKING CONTEST OCT. 3

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. (AP) — Twenty Illinois farmers are limbering their fingers for a chance at honors Oct. 3 in the third annual Illinois Corn Picking Contest.

The contest, to be held on the Henry Capen farm one mile east of Bloomington, will be part of a two-day celebration officially proclaimed "Corn Harvest Days" by Gov. Stratton.

Bernard H. Eckhoff of Pontiac, Ill., and Chester Long of Minooka, Ill., and two one-year champions in 1953, will compete.

This year's winners will go to Janesville, Wis., on Oct. 16 for the National Corn Picking Contest.

Crimsons Lose 15-7, Routt Ties Chapin 20-20 Friday Night

Two of the local football teams didn't fair so well Friday night. The Jacksonville Crimsons traveled to Macomb and were defeated by the host team 15-7 while the Routt Rockets entertained Chapin in a PMBC Conference game at the J.H.S. field and played to a 20-20 tie in a thriller.

Coach Bob Kraushaar's Crimsons scored their only touchdown in the second period when Skip Dyer broke loose and scooted right end for the TD. Woodward passed to Knight for the extra point.

Macomb's two TD's came on some fine running by Blevins and Leatherwood. Each scored a six pointer and the Macomb eleven added a safety in the final period.

Dyer led the Crimson offensive. The sophomore back carried the ball 18 times and picked up 165 yards. Marquard was the big man for J.H.S. on defense. The tackle blocked a punt, recovered two fumbles and made eight unassisted tackles.

The Routt-Chapin game saw the lead change hands three times in the final period. Routt's first TD came in the second period when the Rockets marched down field with several running plays and went over on a pass from DeVore to Dowling.

Meredosia scored its first touchdown in the third quarter on an end sweep by Nelson Smith. Smith also went over for the point after touchdown.

Going into the final frame the score was tied at 7 all. Routt center Dick Lewis intercepted a Bearcat pass and raced 27 yards to score. The try for extra point was not good but Routt led 13-7.

However, the Chapin team came right back and put on a drive of its own. Vincent raced 56 yards around his own left end and Smith scored the extra point to give Chapin a 14-13 lead.

With 2 minutes to go, Routt quarterback Jim DeVore began a series of pass plays that carried the ball to the Chapin seven yard line. Doolin went over and with less than one minute to go Routt had a 20-14 lead. However, the game proved to be far from over. Casler kicked off for the Routt team and after Vincent fumbled the ball, Nelson Smith grabbed the pignik and raced the length of the field to score his second TD and tie the game at 20-20.

The Routt forward wall held on the try for extra point and the game ended in a deadlock.

Routt's running attack was sparked by Doolin, Fredericks and Flynn as they picked up 205 yards rushing. However, Jim DeVore hit five out of ten passes good for 42 yards, hitting end Pat Dowling four times. Chapin picked up 173 yards on the ground and Nelson Smith looked every bit like an all-conference back.

The Doolin line played good ball the first half but slumped a little in the second. Dick Lewis continued his fine play at center and line-backer for the Rockets.

Other Games Friday: The Pittsfield Sauekes defeated Notre Dame of Quincy 20-12 on the Pittsfield field. Sanderson scored twice for the winners and Frazier picked up one TD. Heavener made two of three conversions. Baltz and Davis scored for the visitors.

At Pleasant Hill, the host eleven defeated Warsaw 7-6. Edwards connected with Miller for a 30-yard touchdown pass on the second play of the game to give Pleasant Hill a 7-0 lead. Warsaw scored its TD in the third period on an intercepted pass.

In a non-conference battle White Hall edged Roodhouse 13-12. The winners scored both their touchdowns in the first four minutes of play. Brodson went off tackle on a 45 yard punt to score and the kick gave the Maroons a 7-0 lead. A few plays later Brodson fired a 20 yard pass to McClure who went into the end zone to give White Hall a 13-0 lead.

Roodhouse came back to score once in the second period on a 65 yard run by Hausman. Hausman intercepted a pass on his own 5 yard line and raced the length of the field. He also scored the second TD as he raced 60 yards on a pitch out. Neither try for the extra point was good and this cost the Railroaders a tie with the rival White Hall eleven.

In other action throughout the area, Mt. Sterling lost to Hamilton 34-13. Mick Brown completed 11 out of 18 passes for the Hornets including two touchdowns. Sturhahn took the first pass on a 45 yard play and Mauch scored the second after taking a pass from Brown.

Virginia topped Meredosia 20-6 in a PMBC Conference game. The winners scored 20 points in the first quarter and added 12 in the second. Dosh scored its lone tally in the third period.

Sophomore Tosses 6 TD Passes As Purdue Wins 31-0

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — Leonard Dawson, a six-foot sophomore playing his first college football game, rifled four touchdown passes for a big, alert Purdue team Saturday in a 31-0 rout of the Missouri Tigers.

The cool youngster from Alliance, Ohio, completed another pass into the end zone which was nullified by a penalty.

Sophomore end Bob Knoenle, another Ohio product from Massillon, hauled down two of Dawson's touchdown passes and also distinguished himself by recovering a Missouri fumble that set up Purdue's first touchdown.

It was Purdue's first opening game victory in eight years, and the sophomore-sparked Boilermakers appeared to be the most promising combination of postwar teams.

Missouri 0 0 0 0—0 Purdue 0 19 6 6—31 Purdue scoring: Touchdowns—Springer, Brock, Knoenle 2, Murskowski, Conversion, Reichert.

Florida Gators Top Georgia Tech

ATLANTA (AP) — Jackie Simpson and Mel Hamilton led a battling gang of Florida Gators to a 13-12 upset victory Saturday over Georgia Tech, the nation's fifth-ranked football power.

The speed of Simpson and the tremendous power of Hammack was more than Tech's tackle-weakened defenses could stop. A dangerous Gator passing attack kept Tech off balance.

Florida drew first blood in the third quarter, Simpson racing around his own right end from the four to climax a 52-yard march. Dick Allen converted.

A little later end Buddy Jones of Tech gathered in an Allen pass and ran it back 36 yards to Florida. Four plays later Bill Brigrum sneaked it over from the two, but a bad pass from center Jimmy Morris cost Tech its chance to tie it.

Each team scored again in the final period but neither conversion was good.

AIRMAN OF THE MONTH

To win the honor Airman First Class Morris showed superior ability and exceptional initiative in handling the administration of the Communications section. The certificate stated that he had demonstrated excellent ability and initiative on many occasions by accomplishing tasks normally beyond his scope with a minimum of help or supervision from his superiors. "His military appearance and bearing is above reproach, and his devotion to duty has brought credit to his organization and the United States Air Force," the citation concluded.

Morris enlisted in the Air Force Jan. 22, 1952 and received his training at several bases. He was then sent to Korea, arriving there Dec. 26, 1952. He returned to the United States Nov. 13, 1953, and was assigned to the 781st Aircraft Control and Warning Squadron, Fort Custer, Mich., Jan. 4, 1954.

Crash Near Meredosia Kills 2 Persons; 2 Injured In Hospital

Morgan and Cass county officials continued investigation yesterday into details surrounding an automobile collision at the junction of State Routes 100-104, east of Meredosia, which claimed the lives of a young man and woman and the serious injury of two other men. The tragic accident occurred at 9:20 o'clock Friday night.

Miss Alma Staake, 21, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Staake of Chapin route 1, died in Schmitt Memorial hospital at Beardstown, an hour after the crash.

Delbert Bunch, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ruby Bunch of Meredosia, was killed instantly.

The Staake girl was in company with Robert Werries, 21, of near Chapin, who is at home on leave from Fort Lewis, Wash.

Werries sustained a head injury, concussion, and multiple lacerations.

LeRoy Tennis, 31, of Meredosia, riding with Bunch, has a fractured femur (thigh), fractured ankle, fractured ribs, a head injury, and lacerations.

The condition of both injured men was reported as satisfactory last night at the Beardstown hospital. The attending physician said Werries probably would be able to leave the hospital within a few days.

No Details Yet

Coroner William L. Hawk and Deputy Coroner Lloyd Markille of Morgan county, who joined in the investigation Friday night and Saturday, said they were informed that the injured men are not yet in condition to make statements concerning details of the accident.

Miss Staake is believed to have been driving a 1950 Chevrolet, and Bunch is believed to have been driving a 1941 Dodge. Both vehicles were wrecked. Werries was a passenger in the Chevrolet. Officials believe that he and Miss Staake were traveling toward Meredosia.

Bunch and Tennis had been in Meredosia a few minutes before the collision. Friends of the two told officials that the two youths were en route to Jacksonville.

Bunch is believed to have been dead when first help arrived at the scene of the wreck, at the north junction of the two highways. The girl, Werries and Tennis were taken to the Beardstown hospital in the Schaefer ambulance.

Pronounced Dead

Dr. Joseph Panella of Meredosia pronounced Bunch dead, after which the remains were taken to the Schaefer Funeral Home in Meredosia. An autopsy was performed there by Dr. Hugh McKinley of Jacksonville. Bunch's death is reported to have been due to a broken neck.

Miss Staake sustained extensive head injuries and cuts. She recovered consciousness for a short time, but died soon after arrival at the hospital.

Joseph Lintner, Cass county coroner, began an investigation after the girl's death in that county.

Officers who went to the place of the wreck included State Patrolmen Charles Batley and Merle Balke; Deputy Coroner Markille and Deputy Sheriff Harold Wright.

Inquest Jury

Greene Co. Farm Bureau Extension Group Plans Year

CARROLLTON — The members of the extension program committee of the Greene County Farm Bureau met Thursday and completed the outline of the 1955 extension program for Greene county subject to the approval of the executive board of the Greene County Farm Bureau.

The program places a major emphasis on 4-H clubs, Rural Youth group, programs for young married group, marketing, farm management and conservation and improved farm living.

The members of the committee are Marion Hildebrandt, William Gilmore, George Farrow, Joe Goodedy, D. B. Bixon, George Graham, Noble Schmitz, H. C. Cole, John Everett, Roy Hettick, Mrs. G. Price, Donald Mansfield, Mrs. Oscar Thibault, Donald Evans, Ardell Kimmel, A. P. Crowell, Guy Petty, Don Allen, Carl Wright, Bill Layton, T. A. Martin, Mrs. F. Wagner, Paul Pressler, Charles Blines, Gerald Wedekind and Froman Haltsworth.

New Programs On WLDS; Time Changes Listed

Some new programs and several schedule changes will be noted in the WLDS program log printed elsewhere in the Journal Courier. The change takes place partly because of the return to standard time, and also because of the desire on the part of WLDS management to bring the citizens of this area programs of greater interest and entertainment value as they become available.

Beginning Monday, September 27, the station will broadcast the well known couple of Betty Grable and Harry James in a 55 minute show from 10:05 to 11:00 each Monday and Friday. This is a new show just made available by the World Broadcasting System, and will be heard exclusively in this area over WLDS. The program will feature the husband and wife chatter of Grable and James, news about Hollywood and your favorite stars interspersed with interviews and music by many of the country's leading stars.

In order to keep the people of the area better informed on the world's most popular subject, weather, WLDS will add another weather summary direct from the weather bureau in Springfield. Broadcasts from the Weather Bureau will now be heard at 7:05 each morning and 12:15 noon Monday through Friday.

Another new program to be heard will be the Judy Canova Show which will be aired every Saturday morning from 10:30 to 11:00. This follows the weekly program by the 4-H clubs of Morgan and Scott counties.

In general most other programs will be heard at their usual time. All programs that were switched to Central Daylight time this spring will return to Standard time today. The regular schedule of church broadcasts is the only exception. They resume the regular schedule on Sunday, Oct. 3.

Teachers Society Has Potluck And Meeting At JHS

Members of the Lambda chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma held the first meeting of the season in the home economics room Thursday, Sept. 16, at the Jacksonville high school. The Jacksonville members of the sorority were hostesses for a potluck supper. The table arrangements were of roses, marigolds and asters.

Mrs. Elma Savage was program chairman and Miss Mabel Ruyie gave the invocation. After an important business session, the president, Miss Pauline Meyer, gave a report of the meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma Lambda state executive board held at the New Salem Lodge June 11. She followed this report with that of the national conference held in August in Boston.

The announcement of the committees for the year was made. The following Jacksonville members are serving on these committees: auditing, Irene Groves, Edna Osornoe, Olive Venters; legislation, Grace Finch; program, Elma Savage, Mildred Vasey, Edith Ruyie, Margaret Moore; publications and publicity, Elma Mae Leonard; scrapbook, Mabel Ruyie and social, Blanche Spall.

News Photograph Revives Memories For Texas Woman

A photograph in last week's issue of Life magazine attracted considerable interest here—more interest than when it was carried a few months ago by AP news-papers following the Puerto Rican shooting scrape in the galleries of the U.S. House of Representatives.

At that time the people of this area were attracted to the photo because it showed Congressman Sid Simpson of Carrollton; Milton McClure, Beardstown, Cass county states attorney; Glen Tillet, mayor of Beardstown; McClure's son, Milton III; J.J. Sullivan, Jacksonville, a member of the capitol police; Wallace Dales of Elizabeth, Ill.; and A. S. Rodgers of Texas.

A lot of people all over the land recognized the people in the photograph.

The picture had an especial interest for Mrs. A.S. Rodgers of Texas, who noticed that one of the house guards resembled that of her husband who had deserted her and nine children in 1937.

She sent her oldest son, 21, to Washington. When the son appeared House Guard Rodgers, 71, said, "I guess I'm the man you're looking for."

Although he had married again, his first wife shunned him and filed suit for divorce "to make an honest woman out of the other woman."

Rodgers was appointed to the House police by Sam Rayburn, minority leader from Texas. He is not expected to return at the opening of the 84th Congress.

Wood River Man Dies, And Four Injured In Crash Near Greenfield

GREENFIELD — One man was killed and four other persons injured at 5:30 o'clock Saturday when an automobile collided with two parked trucks on U. S. Route 67 and overturned east of Rockbridge.

The dead man was Bob Goforth of East Alton. The injured were Randall Wiser and Ray Unterbrink, both of East Alton and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swarrigin of Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, all passengers in the Goforth car.

According to reports an Elm City Produce truck driven by William H. Winters, 1035 North Fayette street, Jacksonville, blew a tire while en route from St. Louis to Jacksonville. Winters pulled his truck off the highway and called his company to send a truck to bring his produce to Jacksonville. This truck arrived, driven by Odis O. Thomas, 339 East Wolcott street, Jacksonville.

Shortly after Thomas had backed his truck against the truck which had blown a tire, the car driven by Goforth struck the Thomas truck, careened against that driven by Winters and then overturned.

Pinned In Car

Goforth was pinned in his car but the others were thrown clear of the automobile.

Russell Shields, Greenfield mortician, and his son took their ambulance to the scene and it required sometime to get Goforth out of the wrecked car.

Goforth was taken to the Boyd Memorial Hospital at Carrollton where he was pronounced dead by Dr. Paul Dailey.

The Shields ambulance also took the injured to the Carrollton hospital.

Mrs. Swarrigin was reported in a serious condition suffering from internal injuries.

Her husband, Wiser and Unterbrink were not so badly hurt and were able to leave the hospital after receiving treatment.

Inquest Later

Goforth's body was taken to the Shields Memorial Home at Greenfield where Deputy Coroner Russell Shields swore in a jury. Coroner William Wolfe of Roodhouse will hold an inquest next week.

Goforth was a navy veteran in World War II, and was employed by the Standard Oil company at Wood River.

Mr. and Mrs. Swarrigin had hitch-hiked from Jerseyville to the junction of Routes 67 and 16 and were picked up by Goforth just before the accident happened. The Swarrigins were en route to Greenfield for a visit with relatives.

Charles Brooks, Dies Suddenly At Carrollton

CARROLLTON — A retired farmer, Charles Brooks, 82, was found dead in his yard at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon by neighborhood children. It is believed that he died about noon.

Mr. Brooks had been in ill health for some time, suffering from a heart ailment.

He resided with his sons, Louis and Harry Brooks, who left home for work about 6 o'clock Saturday morning.

Brooks was born in Mt. Gilead neighborhood Dec. 31, 1872, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Willis Brooks.

He farmed in the Mt. Gilead community until 12 years ago when he moved to Daum where he resided until coming to Carrollton nine years ago.

His wife, Cora Mae Sturman Brooks, died March 27, 1953.

Mr. Brooks was a member of the Mt. Gilead Church.

Surviving are seven children: Loren Brooks, Alton; Eugene Brooks, Camp Point; Mrs. John Volles, Mrs. Dorothy Tuley, LeRoy Brooks, Harry Brooks and Louis Brooks, all of Carrollton.

The body is at the Mehl Funeral Home.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Art Course Will Be Given At I.C.

As part of the adult education offerings in this city, Illinois College will have an evening course in "Introduction to Public School Art." to be taught by Mrs. Dorothy M. Frank, well known local Art teacher.

The course provides opportunity for teachers to experiment in the various art media which they might use in the secondary school classroom. The course is augmented by the study and discussion of texts devoted to the subject, the preparation of lesson plans and visits to art exhibitions in the area, all of which are planned to equip teachers to develop the creative efforts of their students.

The course will be given for the full year and will carry four semester hour credits.

It will be given Wednesday from 7:00 to 9:00 p. m. in Tanner Class Room "1, which is on the ground floor of Tanner Library and Administration Building. The class meeting will be held on Wednesday, September 28. Those wishing to take the course may register a half hour before the first class meeting. For further information prospective registrants may call Professor George W. Horton, director of adult education, at 443-W noontime or evenings.

LEAN MEAT QUALITIES TRACED TO MORGAN BOAR

Practically nobody wants fatback today and lard is cheap. The move is toward lean pork and the breeders are changing their type to the wishes of the housewife, just as they have been doing for centuries. In an effort to locate strains within the Duroc breed that are producing a meat-type carcass consistently, the U.S.D.A. has set up a field research program with Dr. Ralph Durham (above) in charge. That isn't a T-bone steak he's holding, but the loin of a five-month-old Duroc barrow that cut out 57% in primal cuts, loin ham, shoulder and Boston butt. One of the herds tested by Durham this fall was on the John N. Urish & Sons farm at Green Valley. Durham found that a barrow of the

THIS IS A closeup of the Duroc type carcasses, which is 3.75 square loin that measured over seven inches. The barrow weighed 179 square inches, nearly twice the size pounds at five months and had a of USDA requirements for meat-backfat average of 1.25 inches.

Vegetative Cover Practice Offered To Local Farmers

The counties that were designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as disaster areas for emergency production loans, which included Morgan County, had the opportunity to ask for approval of a new A.C.P. practice.

The Morgan County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office recently received approval of this Practice (No. 21). Anyone interested may make application at the County A.S.C. office according to Wallace T. Hembrough, office manager.

This practice applies to seedings of eligible grasses, legumes or small grains on cropland which will be shifted for the entire 1955 crop year from crop production to green manure or cover crops. Pasturing consistent with good management is permitted.

Eligible seedings will include rye, winter oats, barley, timothy, red top, orchard grass, bromegrass, tall fescue, alfalfa, and such other similar crops as may be recommended by county committees and approved by the state committee. Seedings of these eligible crops or mixtures thereof must be made according to normal standard farming methods and seeding rates recognized in the community or as otherwise specified by the county committee.

Use of limestone and fertilizer is required only when alfalfa is seeded. Assistance may be given for the use of needed limestone and fertilizers used in connection with a grain or grass seeding provided the producer agrees to spring seed legumes on the area.

Extent of materials for which cost-sharing assistance may be granted will be determined by soil test, except that if no soil test is available, minimum requirements may be established locally on the basis of experiment station recommendations and experience in the particular area.

Cost shares paid under this practice shall be refunded if the land is not devoted throughout the 1955 crop year to green manure and cover crops from which no hay or seed is harvested.

PLAYING THE PICKER USUALLY EXPENSIVE

URBANA — If you "play the horses" and lose, it's money down the drain. But when you "play the picker" and lose, says Wendell Bowers, University of Illinois agricultural engineer, you may lose both money and a finger, hand or arm.

When you try to clean or adjust a picker while its running you're betting your hand, your arm — maybe even your life—to save a couple of minutes.

You're doing the same thing when you don't put the power takeoff shields on the picker. The few minutes it takes to attach shields can save many dollars and months of time—if it prevents an accident.

LOWER STORE PRICES STEP UP MILK SALES

URBANA — Let the housewife do more of the work in milk distribution, and give her more milk for her money. That's the best way to sell more milk per person.

R. W. Bartlett, University of Illinois farm economist, says this is being done in some markets, and in each case milk sales have gone up.

The housewife does the work by buying milk in grocery stores, and she gets more for her money by buying in half-gallon or gallon lots. This practice, called "quantity discounts," is increasing.

Name Community ASC Committees In Morgan

Ballots received in the annual election of A.S.C. community committees were counted at Farm Bureau hall last week by community election committees, which had been appointed by E. H. Garlich, Ted Pierce, Harold D. Kamm and J. E. Hicks.

There were 558 ballots mailed in. Ten of these were disqualified because eligibility could not be determined.

The results of the election follow. The first man named is the community chairman; the second, the vice chairman, and the third, committee member.

Always hitch trailing implements to the drawbar so that your tractor won't tip over backward, suggests a University of Illinois farm machinery specialist. When a tractor tips over, things happen so fast that you don't have time to reach the clutch.

Special 4-H Keys For 5 Club Years And Achievement

Long-time membership and achievement by Illinois 4-H boys and girls will be recognized through the newly organized Illinois 4-H Key Club award program.

Assistant Farm Adviser Joe Faggett says that Morgan County 4-H Club members who have enrolled for five years or more are eligible to receive the 4-H Key.

Rules for eligibility say that a 4-H member must have passed his or her 16th birthday by January 1 of the year in which the award is made. He or she must have completed five years of 4-H Club work and three years of junior leadership.

In addition, total years in club work, offices held, projects completed and other club activities will all be considered in making the awards. Awards will be gold keys that girls may wear on neck chains and boys may wear on tie clasps. Selection will be made in the state office.

Cities Service Oil Company sponsors the program in six states. The program is supervised in Illinois by the Cooperative Extension Service of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

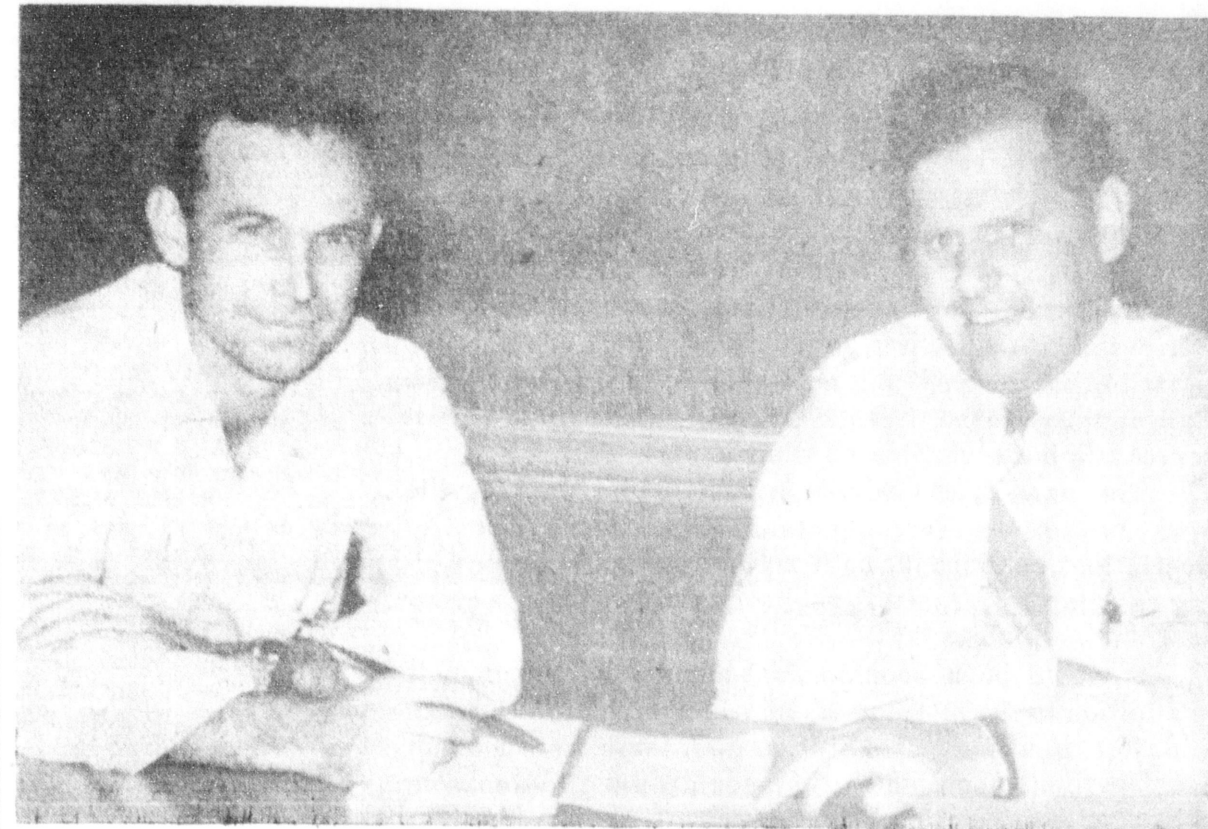

Peoria To Welcome Township Officials

Many township officers of this area plan to attend the 54th annual convention of the Township Officials of Illinois, which will open Tuesday and run through Thursday at the Pere Marquette hotel, Peoria.

The association now has 3,000 members, primarily tax collectors, assessors, supervisors, town clerks, justices of peace, constables and highway commissioner. William J. Vierage of Gilman is the association president.

Special convention speakers include Senator Albert Scott of Canton, Legion Commander Irving Breakstone of Chicago, Attorney D. V. Dobbins of Champaign, Dr. Allen A. Stockdale of New York City, Troy A. Kost of Astoria, G. W. Henderson of Galesburg; Maurice G. Porter of Clinton and Harry W. Talley of Bloomington.

THE SMITH-HUGHES BOYS

Back in 1917 a pair of Southern legislators, both from Georgia, proposed a bill for federal aid for vocational education: agriculture, home economics and industrial arts. They were Senator Hoke Smith and Congressman Dudley Mays Hughes.

The Smith-Hughes bill carried despite violent cries of invasion of states rights and socialism since the proposed grants in aid were accompanied by federal supervision.

There's an unusual situation in Unit 27, which includes Chapin, Concord and Arenaville. James T. Smith, left, has been the agriculture instructor at Arenaville since 1952. The new instructor at Chapin is John L. Smith, right.

Illinois Farmers Outlook Letter

PARITY PRICES. The modernized method of calculating parity prices for the basic commodities goes into effect in 1956. (The official "basic commodities are corn, wheat, cotton, tobacco, peanuts and rice. The modernized parity formula already is in effect for other farm products.) The new act provides for a gradual transition from the old to the modernized parity prices at a rate of 5 percent a year. (Under this provision the parity price of corn will decline 10 percent over the two years 1956 and 1957 while the parity price of wheat will decline 16 percent over the three years 1956-1958.)

PRICE SUPPORT. Corn, wheat, cotton, peanuts and rice, 1955 crops will be supported at prices ranging from 82 1/2 to 90 percent of parity, depending upon the supply of each crop. (The prospective supply situation for each crop points to supports at 82 1/2 percent of parity for wheat and 85 to 90 percent of parity for corn, cotton, peanuts and rice.) 1956 and later crops will be supported at prices ranging from 75 to 90 percent of parity, depending upon the supply situation for each crop. Marketing quotas for corn are eliminated.

DAIRY PRODUCTS. Price support is continued at 75 to 90 percent of parity as the Secretary of Agriculture declares is necessary in order to assure an adequate supply. (The Secretary has determined that 75 percent of parity will assure an adequate supply and has supported prices at this level since early last spring. This level of support will probably be contained in 1955 unless supplies shrink rapidly.) In addition, the Commodity Credit Corporation is directed to use $50,000,000 a year for the next two years to increase the consumption of milk in schools.

WOOL. The support price for wool after April 1, 1955, is required to be at an incentive level not exceeding 110 percent of parity, as the Secretary determines is necessary to encourage farmers to produce annually 300 million pounds of shorn wool. If and when such production is reached, the support price is to revert to 60 to 90 percent of parity (as now), as the Secretary determines is necessary to encourage the annual production of 360 million pounds of wool. (This presumably means that the 1955 wool crop will be supported at 110 percent of parity compared with 90 percent for the 1954 crop. It seems likely that the price of wool will be supported at 110 percent of parity for several years.)

DIVERTED ACRES. (The use of land diverted from corn, wheat, etc. by acreage allotment is not spelled out by law, but depends upon administrative rulings.) The new act provides that regulations issued by the Secretary restricting the use of diverted acres (1) may be issued on an appropriate geographical basis; (2) are to permit the production of forage crops for future use in areas where good husbandry requires a feed reserve; and (3) are to permit the restoration of the normal pattern of agriculture in disaster areas.

SALE OF CCC FEED GRAINS. Feed grains owned by the CCC can be sold at the point of storage at the current price support level plus 10 percent.

CONSERVATION PAYMENTS. Farmers who knowingly exceed their acreage allotments will not be eligible for any A.C.P. payments under the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act.

ANOTHER NEW ag teacher in Morgan County came to Waverly from West Pike high at Kinderhook. He's Ralph W. Twenhafel, a U.I. graduate class of 1951. He was reared on a Mississippi valley farm near Gorham, Jackson county, and follows Jim Handy who left teaching to enter the insurance business at Waverly.

Twenhafel married his boyhood sweetheart, Edris Jarrett. They have two children: Cathy, nearing 4, and Bruce, 2.

His junior and senior students have undertaken a special study, a 90-acre farm southwest of Waverly recently acquired by Russell Lucas. Each student will recommend a specific farm plan, including fertility building, conservation, cropping programs, kinds and number of livestock required, etc., with the idea of the farm producing sufficient income for the operator.

CHARLES E. RUEB (pronounced Rube) is the third new ag teacher in Morgan county. He graduated from the U.I. College of Agriculture in 1952 and before coming to Meredosia taught at Bowen and Weatherfield.

He's one of the well known Rueb triplets of the Barry-Payson area. One brother, Robb Roy, is a commercial teacher at Winchester high school; the second brother, James, is a mechanic at R. C. Gray & Co., Pittsfield.

Right now Rueb and his 20 students are busy converting a section of the bus garage into a farm shop. He also plans adult classes during the winter months and finds that many of the elders are interested in long-term weather forecasting.

Rueb is married and has one daughter, Teresa, 21 months old. He succeeds Andy Wetzel of Naples, who is moving to a farm near Macomb.

A KENDALL COUNTY, ILL., farmer, Robert C. Erickson, 30, was the winner of the national level land plowing contest held at Olney on Saturday, Sept. 18. He won the state contest the previous day.

Erickson farms 312 acres near Minooka. The runner-up was Harry T. Neete, 39, of Van Wert, Ohio, and a 28 year old Minnesota man placed third.

WE'VE GOT IT, NOW USE IT!

The announcement that on October 1st Byerly Airlines will start regular air service between Jacksonville and Chicago via Peoria should be welcome news to all who believe in Jacksonville as a growing community. The new service should meet a real transportation need.

As a result of our relatively close proximity to Springfield, this city has, in a sense, been off of the transportation map except for automobiles, buses and trucks. Railroad service has been steadily cut back until now it represents but a shadow of what it once was.

The new Byerly flights will help put Jacksonville back on the map, enabling local citizens to fly direct to Peoria and to Chicago, both major terminals. From Chicago's Midway airport flights originate to almost every spot on the globe.

It would be a boon to Jacksonville businessmen if in addition to the morning flight which arrives in Chicago at 8:30 a.m. and departs at 9:00 a.m. there were also an evening flight upon which they could return to Jacksonville after a full business day in Chicago. Byerly Airlines officials have indicated that such an evening flight might be added to their schedules if there is sufficient demand for it.

Even with the one daily flight each way it will be possible for Jacksonville residents to go to Chicago in the morning, spend a full business or shopping day, and return home the same evening by train to Springfield and bus to Jacksonville by 9:30 p.m. And the actual cost of this one day trip, counting air, rail and bus fares together, is less than the average traveler would spend if he had to go up to Chicago the night before and stay at a hotel in the Loop.

We wish Byerly Airlines success in their new flight operation. There is every reason to believe that they will have it. With their already well established Peoria to Chicago operation they have proved their ability to fly regularly with safety and dependability. All they need here is the backing of Jacksonville people who will use the service offered.

A PEACEFUL ATOMIC PROGRAM

It was not too long ago that critics were saying harshly that President Eisenhower's atomic pool for peace was just a sketchy idea, that at the time he proposed it neither he nor anyone around him had the foggiest notion how it might be made to work.

They must have been rather startled at the recent announcement of an historic atomic agreement involving this country, Britain, France, Canada, Australia and South Africa.

Obviously the criticism was not well taken. That does not mean there was a clear, carefully thought out plan in existence when Mr. Eisenhower first mentioned the pool idea. What the criticism seems to overlook is that many statesmanlike achievements are born as sketchy ideas.

When former Secretary of State George Marshall first suggested the European aid program which later bore his name, there was no detailed plan. When former President Truman listed certain items of world policy in his 1949 inaugural address, he included a "Point Four" calling for technical and material help to underdeveloped areas. Again, no plan existed. But one does today.

It is not necessary to wait until a plan is reduced to full blueprint stage before telling the world about it. Mr. Eisenhower's December speech to the UN on the atomic pool stirred the hearts of the free world as few utterances have done since the end of World War II. It deserved to be heard when it was.

Russia caused no great surprise, of course, when it refused to take any practical steps toward the fulfillment of this proposed program. But we can be thankful that there is still sufficient imaginative statesmanship in the free world to see that this was a plan to be pushed with or without Russia.

Under the new agreement, the participating countries will learn how to use the atom in medicine, agriculture and industry. Knowledge gleaned from operation of atomic power plants such as America is now beginning to experiment with will be passed on. To transmit this priceless understanding of the atom's peaceful uses, this country will set up a special training school.

As others have observed, atomic bombs may have served to prevent a third world war so far. But they have not helped to win the Cold War, the political struggle going on between Communist and free worlds in all the earth's free areas. Peaceful application of the atom, however, might prove to be one of the free world's most winning assets in this bitter contest.

The new atomic pool agreement is an alliance for peace. It is an alliance set up to serve mankind. It is aimed not at protecting people from some aggressor's bombs or guns but at making them stronger and healthier, at giving them a higher standard of living, and a fuller, richer life.

Quite an idea, when you come to think of it.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE
NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP) — The motorcycle cop, long regarded by motorists as a kill-joy, isn't yet as rare as the cigar store Indian.

But he is rapidly disappearing from America's great highways. "We don't use motorcycles at all," said Brig. Gen. W.W. Wanamaker, executive director of the 118-mile New Jersey Turnpike. "They're too dangerous and they couldn't do the job for us."

His force of 76 state cops all use patrol cars. The Jersey Turnpike as a result is now the most heavily policed as well as the heaviest traveled road of its kind in the nation. It is now also one of the safest.

"This year we have reduced traffic fatalities to 2.42 per 100 Wanamaker. "As compared to a rate of 6.6 for national public highways."

"The improved safety can be policing and the fact the public is showing more sense. They have learned how to drive safely on turnpikes, and the novelty of using them as racetracks has worn off."

The modern highway cop would like to be regarded more as a good samaritan for motorists rather than as a guy who does nothing but ambush speeders. The figures bear them out.

"Last year we gave 15,339 summonses for speeding," said Lt. Joseph W. Mack, 48, a state policeman for 25 years. "But we helped 42,112 motorists who were in trouble."

Now and then Lt. Mack likes to look back on his first two years in service, when he rode horseback through rural areas of the state.

"I guess I didn't care as much about that horse then as I do now," he said, wistfully. "Her name was Mamie. I wanted to get on the motorcycles because, when you finished, all you had to do was turn in the motorcycle and go eat."

"But with Mamie, I first had to see she was dry, rub her down with straw, spread her bedding, feed her, and saddle soap the leather equipment. An in the morning, before starting out, I had to currier her, feed and water her, and clean out her stall." (ADVANCE PMS SATURDAY)

In Hollywood

By ROB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Tom Ewell, of all people, is playing the lead in the film version of "Seven Year Itch."

This is somewhat odd in Hollywood, where the studios generally consider anyone for a role except the person who originated it on the stage. But Ewell, who played the role 730 times on Broadway, won out over such candidates as William Holden and Gary Cooper. He has the pleasure of appearing opposite Marilyn Monroe in the sexy comedy.

The actor said he was only out of the show twice during its long run. Once he strained a ligament and couldn't walk for three days. And he took a six-week vacation from the show for a tour of the West Indies.

Ewell is living proof of the theory that actors have to go to Broadway to seek their fortune. He spent several years in Hollywood, marking up a number of memorable performances, largely in supporting roles. His last job was in the Willie and Joe films at U-I. Now he's back as a leading man.

WEEKLY BIBLE COMMENT

Bearing Witness to the Truth

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

At various times and in various places Jesus defined the nature of His coming and His mission in various ways.

He came to seek and to save that which was lost, and though that declaration was made in connection with the saving of Zacchaeus (Luke 19), the mission of saving the lost found its supreme illustration in the three great parables in Luke 15. The Parable of the Lost Sheep, the Parable of the Lost Piece of Silver, and the Parable of the Prodigal Son.

He came to life, and to give it more abundantly (John 10:10). And while that life was of the spirit, He associated His mission with the wholeness of living, and the joy of life. In contrast with the ascetic life of John the Baptist in the wilderness, Jesus described Himself as having come eating and drinking (Luke 7:34).

He shared the joy of a wedding feast (John 2) and there seems to have been something almost playful in the nicknames He gave some of the Twelve.

The sons of Zebedee, James and John, intense in their ambition to be first, He called "Boanerges," the "Sons of Thunder." And the weak and impulsive Simon, He called "Peter," the Rock in faith, hope, and prophecy of what that disciple was to become.

But perhaps the outstanding all-inclusive declaration concerning the mission of Jesus was when He said to Pilate: "To this end I born, and for this cause I came into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth" (John 18:37).

It is recorded in the Gospels in all that He said and did. It was the truth concerning God, His grace and love for a sinful world. It was the truth concerning human relationships; that only as men loved one another could they be godly, fulfilling the will of God by being like Him.

It is surprising how much the attitude of the world today is still very much the cynical and contemptuous attitude of Pilate: "What is Truth?"

In recent years I have read rather widely in the literature of the past two or three decades, including many of the "best sellers" and much fiction. Apart from distinctly religious books and a minority of religious novels, such as "The Robe" and "The Silver Chalice," a vast mass of present-day literature contains not even a suggestion that Jesus of Nazareth ever lived.

What the world needs most is the witness to the truth, of those whose end and purpose in life will be that of the Master. All that is good and great in the world, in so far as it has issued from Judaism and Christianity, has come from witness, the voices of experience speaking what God has revealed as souls of earnestness have called to Him out of the depths.

Manners Make Friends

Saying "Pleased to meet you" is not the right way to acknowledge an introduction. "How do you do" is the right thing to say. But while you're saying "How do you do," it's always good to look as though you're thinking "Pleased to meet you."

THOUGHTS

Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power.—Thes. 1:11
Prayer crowns God with the honor and glory due to His name, and God crowns prayer with assurance and comfort. The most praying souls are the most assured souls.—Brooks.

Best Homemakers Cut Own Pattern, Don't Copy Others

A young wife, new to housekeeping, asks if I can send her a work schedule so that she can become an efficient housekeeper. All I can tell her is that you can't cut your own housekeeping routine to anybody else's schedule.

That is why it usually takes a while for a bride to become an efficient homemaker.

Every family is different, every home is different, and what spells efficiency to one homemaker spells slavery to another.

So each new homemaker, taking into consideration the way she can and likes to do each job, what she considers important and what her husband considers important, has to work out her own system for getting her job done.

SCHEDULE IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE

And just about the time she thinks she can manage a home for two, the family starts increasing, or the husband's job requirements are different, and so on. So the homemaker's routine not only has to be worked out by the homemaker herself—but it has to change from month to month and year to year to meet changed circumstances.

The best advice I can offer is not to try to keep house like Mrs. Smith next door or like your mother or mother-in-law, but to keep house the way that suits you and your husband's needs.

That extends even to the labor-saving devices you buy. Many a young wife gets the labor-saving device all her friends are getting at the moment, rather than actually figuring out what she herself needs most.

The best homemakers are the ones who cut their own patterns instead of trying to copy anybody else's.

Fame Assured if Ambassador Luce Licks Handbag Problem

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON—(NEA) — Clare Boothe Luce, U. S. ambassador to Italy, thinks something ought to be done about women's handbags. They bother her.

By wearing flat-heeled shoes instead of spikes for her daily work, Mrs. Luce can keep up with the men, most of the time.

(She's usually considerably ahead of the boys.)

But whenever Mrs. Luce goes into a business session with males, she feels that she is handicapped by the handbag which fashion, custom, tradition or whatever you call it—even necessity—has decreed that all women must carry.

She sits down at a luncheon conference. First question on the agenda is, What shall she do with the handbag? She holds up a perfectly beautiful big patent leather job and calls it, "This."

Does she plump it on the table where she can get at it, but where it hides the flowers? Or does she put it under her chair where it is inconvenient and almost ungettable? That is the top urgent issue.

Mrs. Luce Has Had Many of her suits designed with pockets. They are not just little decorative patches, too small to hold a dime, or just barely big enough to catch one corner of a lace hanky. They are full size pockets that would make her great-grandmother green with envy.

What's more, Mrs. Luce says she puts things in her pockets and carries them there. But in spite of all, the cargo she can possibly stow in her pockets, it still isn't enough space, so she must carry a handbag.

"This." An albatross around her neck couldn't receive more scorn.

Mrs. Luce's new economic policy in re. handbags may be said to be in the planning stage. What this really means is that she probably hasn't put her pretty mind to work on it. She is just protesting mildly, improvising from day to day and wishing that somebody else would do something about it.

But anyone who thinks this news in itself is not fraught with significance, just don't know from nothing. Ambassador Luce's Skill as a diplomat in keeping America's relations with Italy on an even keel and in trying to help settle the troublesome Trieste issue may make her more famous than she already is.

But if her ideas about women's handbags can be put across, the effect on civilization is going to be positively revolutionary. It will be more sensational than anything the Communists have thought up for changing the world. It will be even more sensational than anything Dior has thought up.

Millions—millions nothing, make it a billion and begin again. A billion women, now slaves to the relentless dictatorship of fashion, now spend 27.4389 per cent of their lives, according to the latest statistics from the UN Economic and Social Council, going through their handbags, looking for things that are there but can't be located.

If Females Could Be liberated from this curse, think how much it would raise—or lower—the world put it under her chair where it is average standards of living. Besides men are so helpless and can gettable? That is the top urgent issue.

Manufacturers of handbags, the handbag designers association and the union of handbag makers, if there is one, will probably protest that any all inside-out reform in the handbag situation will cause widespread unemployment and social change.

But the idea hasn't gone that far, yet. This is just an aide memoire on the status quo, not a coup d'etat, as they say in the State Department.

There is another catch to this "This." If handbags ever should be abolished, what in the world would men give their wives and best girls for Christmas, birthdays, anniversaries or on return from business trips, as souvenirs?

Men should think this over carefully, and not do anything rash. But if the beautiful and brassy Mrs. Luce ever gets around to doing anything about this situation, the world will build a monument to her in Italian marble higher than the Statue of Liberty.

Fully Cooked Smoked Beef Tongue Is New Product

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEA Food and Markets Editor

We tried one of the new fully cooked smoked beef tongues recently put on the market by a large Chicago meat packer with a famous name. We are genuinely enthusiastic—every one of us.

It is delicate, full-flavored and comes packed in a vacuum package. Trimmed of excess fat, skin removed, boneless, it slices perfectly without a morsel of waste.

This time and labor-saving tongue (cured, smoked, fully cooked by water cooked method the way it's done at home) is marketed in 1½ to 2½-pound packages. One pound yields approximately the same number of lean slices as 2 pounds uncooked, untrimmed tongue.

Here's more news, a wonderful new applesauce cake that keeps moist.

Raisin-Applesauce Cake (Serves 12 or more)

One cup seedless raisins, 1 cup nuts, ½ cup shortening, 1 cup granulated sugar, 2 eggs, 2 cups sifted cake flour, 4 teaspoons cocoa, 2 teaspoons soda, 2 teaspoons cinnamon, 1 teaspoon allspice, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 cups cold applesauce, 1 teaspoon vanilla extract. Rinse raisins and dry thoroughly. Chop nuts. Cream shortening and sugar together thoroughly. Beat eggs lightly and blend into creamed mixture. Mix 2 tablespoons flour with raisins. Sift remaining flour with cocoa, soda, spices and salt. Add to creamed mixture alternately with applesauce. Blend in flavoring, floured raisins and nuts. Pour into greased baking pan (8x12x2 inches). Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 45 minutes.

MONDAY'S MENU: Sliced tongue in raisin sauce, boiled potatoes with minced parsley, buttered beets, enriched bread, butter or margarine, applesauce cake, cheese, coffee, tea, milk.

Coat the dustpan with wax so that dirt and dust won't stick to the surface.

The huge bronze figure atop the dome of the U. S. Capitol is called the Statue of Freedom.

Cass County Drive "Kick Off" Set For October 4

VIRGINIA — The Cass County Home Bureau annual membership drive will be held October 4-18. Mrs. Edward Armstrong, vice president, is in charge of membership.

A kick-off dinner meeting on Oct. 4, at 1:30 p.m., in the Farm Bureau Hall, will mark the beginning of the drive by members all over the county to sign new members. The two weeks' drive will officially close with a report meeting on October 18, in Farm Bureau Hall. Membership in the organization is not restricted. It is open to every homemaker, regardless of race, creed or color.

Any woman in Cass county may join Home Bureau by signing the county membership agreement and paying the $5 yearly dues. There are about 500 members in the county and in a meeting last week, membership workers took as their slogan, "50 New Members By October 10."

Women may join the organization at any time by contacting the Home Bureau office in the Farm Bureau building, in Virginia, or a Home Bureau member in their neighborhood. Workers will make a special effort to call on many women during the drive and offer them the privilege and opportunity to join.

Mrs. Carl Rosen, Adair, vice president of McDonough county Home Bureau, will be the guest speaker at the kick-off meeting on October 4. She is well qualified to bring a helpful and challenging message.

Shower Fetes Margaret Miller, Thursday evening, Sept. 23, in the parlors of the local Methodist church. Mrs. M. F. Williams and Mrs. Harry Hoffman entertained 60 guests at a bridal shower for Miss Margaret Miller, whose marriage to Peter Skiles has been announced for October 10.

The parlors were beautifully decorated and red, blue, pale green and white tapers were used on the tables where the guests were seated. The bride's table was in white, with white tapers and the centerpiece was a bride and groom doll. The bridesmaids tables also had doll centerpieces and colored tapers were used.

A raised umbrella had kitchen gadgets and utensils hanging from the points of the ribs and the many and lovely gifts were placed beneath it.

Refreshments of whipped Jello, cake and coffee were served. Out of town guests were present from Baylis, Rushville, Jacksonville and Philadelphia.

Chapin Legion Auxiliary Holds Regular Meeting

CHAPIN—Guest night was observed at the regular meeting of the Chapin American Legion Auxiliary held recently at the Legion Home with twenty-six members and guests present.

The business meeting was conducted by the new president, Beulah McDaniel. The secretary's report was given by Barbara White. The treasurer, Anna LaKamp, reported that the Unit had received a check for $405.00 from the Legion Post for half of the net proceeds of the bazaar which was held in August. Ruth Callaway spoke a few words of appreciation to the Legion Post and a rising vote of thanks was given the Post.

It was announced that the Twentieth District Caravan meeting will be held in Beardstown on October 4. The following delegates to this meeting were appointed: Ada White, Beulah McDaniel, Della Anderson, and Reba Willard; alternates: Anna LaKamp, Ruth Callaway, Trean Nash, and Nellie Hymes.

At the close of the meeting bingo was played with prizes awarded to the winners. Refreshments of ice cream and cookies were served.

Members present were Gertrude Goffinet, Nellie Hymes, Reba Willard, Linda Holstenberg, Anna LaKamp, Ruth Callaway, Emma Smith, Beulah McDaniel, Ada White, Barbara White, Ann Hymes, Ruth Six, Trean Nash, Edna Woodward, and Della Anderson.

Guests present were Alberta, Janet, and Joyce White, Norrine Ball, Nola Anderson, Marian LaKamp, Mildred Griffin, Roberta Meyer, Edith Daly, Lucille Magelitz, and Mary Martin.

VANISHING ICEMAN

OKLAHOMA CITY (P) — Ever wonder what is becoming of the iceman?

J. D. Owens, 23, Wichita, Kan., who owned an ice company at Wichita, took a cue from declining ice sales in his rural deliveries. A check showed his customers were buying refrigerators.

As a result, Owens enrolled in a refrigeration and air conditioning course at Oklahoma A&M Tech here. When he completes the course, Owens plans to return to Wichita and open a new business for himself.

London has not been in the path of a total solar eclipse for more than 150 years, nor will its people see one in the 20th century.

Personals

Cpl. Donald Coonrod, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Coonrod, arrived home on Thursday after having spent the past two years with the armed services, the last sixteen months having been spent in Japan and Korea.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barni are parents of a son born Sept. 19 at Memorial Hospital, Springfield. The mother is the former Patricia Neighbors and the baby has been named Kenneth Edwin.

Three students from this area, all graduates of the local high school, have enrolled in Illinois College and include Robert E. McKinney, son of Jesse H. Barnett, Winchester; Warren Ray Lovelace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lovelace, White Hall; and Ronald Buel Early, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Early, Murrayville.

Mrs. Martha Thompson underwent surgery on Thursday at Passavant Area Hospital following the fracture of a hip suffered in her home earlier in the week.

Mrs. L. Suttles, 75 years of age, is a patient at Our Saviour's Hospital following a hip fracture at her home. Due to her condition, she was unable to undergo surgery to reduce the fracture.

Members of the Past Oracles Club of Camp No. 987 R.N.A. held a winter roast at the Lions park on Thursday night. Guests included Misses Frances Steckel, Inez McGlasson, Margaret McGee and James Frazer and Elmer Dean.

Mrs. Ira Hudson, who has served as recorder for the Royal Neighbor camp of this year for the past ten years, attended a school of instruction at the Dunlap Hotel on Tuesday with 75 other recorders in attendance. Miss Margaret Walker, supreme officer of the lodge, conducted the school which was followed by a luncheon.

Lyle Neighbors has returned to his studies at Blackburn College after spending the summer at Dows Lake, Mich.

Margaret Ray, Jean Wamburn, Irene Williams and Howard Piper have gone to the University of Illinois for the winter term. Miss Ray is a junior and the latter three are sophomores.

Woman's Club At Waverly Holds Meet

WAVERLY—The Waverly Woman's Club will hold their next meeting, Friday, Oct. 1, in the American Legion building. A potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. will precede the meeting.

The program after the supper will consist of colored moving pictures of Europe, shown by O. A. Schutte of Jacksonville, who conducted a tourist party on a trip to England and several countries on the continent during the summer; two members of that party were Mrs. C. F. Allen and Miss Olive Burnett, of Waverly. The pictures will be those taken on this trip.

All members of the tourist party have been invited to be present as guests of the Woman's club. A most interesting and entertaining program is being planned.

Each member of the Woman's club will be privileged to take one guest to the supper and program. Those attending the supper are asked to take their own table service. The committee in charge will provide coffee.

Those on the social committee are Mrs. Leonard Points, chairman; Miss Edith Wemple, Mrs. Marvin Walls, Mrs. Warren Perry, Mrs. F. W. Parkinson, Mrs. Dennis Maher, Mrs. C. F. Allen, Mrs. George Mader, Mrs. Paul Allyn and Mrs. Roy McCracken.

The 4000-year-old palace of King Minos was as large as London's Buckingham Palace. It was located at Chossus, Crete.

Patterson Voters Registration Is October 5th

PATTERSON—It was incorrectly stated in our Thursday papers that October 20th would be the day of the registration of voters in Patterson Township. The correct date for registration is October 5th.

Briefs

Mrs. Charles Carriger observed her eighty-third birthday anniversary on Wednesday, Sept. 22, and she and Mr. Carriger were dinner guests in the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fry, and grandchildren in Roodhouse. The Carrigers will enter the Tower View Nursing Home in Carrollton around the first of October. They have spent the past few winters there.

A birthday dinner was held Sunday, Sept. 19, at the Nichols Park in Jacksonville honoring Mrs. Mary Lou Burton, whose birthday fell on Sept. 14; Mrs. Orville Rhodes' on the 18th and Mrs. Hazel Smith's which was the 25th. Others attending were Bill Burton and sons and daughter Debbie, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bain and daughters Marilyn and Shirley, Mrs. Cora Bain and Orville Rhodes and son, Russell.

A supper was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Kennedy in White Hall on Wednesday, Sept. 22, honoring her father, Charles Cowper, on his 81st birthday. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Crabtree and son, Ronnie Dawdy, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilkinson, all of Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carriger accompanied their daughter, Mrs. Nona Fry, of Roodhouse, to the Lions Park in White Hall, on Sunday to a reunion of the Allen family. Mr. and Mrs. Mon House of Patterson also attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Muri Hannel and children and Bernice Wyatt visited the Floyd Hannel family in Meredosia, Saturday night, and attended the homecoming. On Sunday they visited her mother, Mrs. Madeline Holcomb in Summer Hill, and she accompanied them home for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Williamson and daughters Mary Edna and June of Quincy, visited Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Aulgur of Detroit, Mich., have been recent visitors here with Mr. and Mrs. Vete Aulgur.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilkinson moved Thursday to the property they recently purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Dawdy, south of Patterson.

Mrs. Gertrude Springate, formerly of Patterson, now residing in the Kemmerly Nursing home in White Hall, fell recently and injured her hip.

Howard Williamson, who is employed in Chicago, arrived here Tuesday for a few days visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Smith visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith in Medora.

Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Dawdy visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Platt, near Elrod.

Hembrough And Thomas Reunion

The Hembrough and Thomas reunion was held Sunday, Sept. 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orlia Thomas, 337 Laurel Drive. Each family took baskets of good food displayed buffet style in the basement of the home for serving at noon. For the past three years the Orlia Thomas family has been host at the reunion. Three families, living out of the state, were unable to attend. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Goheen and family of Oakland, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hembrough and family of San Lorenzo, Calif. and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hembrough of Ely, Nevada.

Thirty-one members were present. Kathy Hembrough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hembrough, was the youngest present. The occasion was also near the date of the Orlia Thomas' 25th wedding anniversary which was Sept. 14.

Games were played, music enjoyed and dancing, horseshoe throwing and other recreation held. Many pictures were taken.

PTA's Help To Teachers Topic At Carrollton

CARROLLTON — The opening meeting of the fall season of the Parent Teacher's Association was held Monday evening in the auditorium of the local high school. Mrs. C. E. Whiteman, the P. T. A. president presided and the teachers were introduced to the group by Mrs. Whiteman's husband, Dr. C. E. Whiteman.

The speaker of the evening was Miss Charlotte Bruner, teacher of the 4th grade in the local grade school who discussed "How the P. T. A. Can Assist Teachers." Olin Stead, superintendent of Carrollton Community Unit District No. 1 showed a movie entitled "Freedom to Learn." Musical numbers were given by Truman Ross, who played a trombone solo and Miss Shirley Rae Roll who gave a clarinet solo. Both soloists were accompanied at the piano by Miss Patricia Pruitt.

The meeting date of the Parent Teacher's Association has been changed from Wednesday to the third Monday in each month and as the cost per member per year is only 25 cents it is hoped that the parents of all the children in the school will become members and assist with the worthwhile program which is sponsored by P. T. A.

Two officers testified they were sitting in the police station when they heard tires squeal loudly as the man rounded a corner at 3 a. m. They gave chase and arrested him.

Registration For Voters In Greene County Is Oct. 5

WHITE HALL—Tuesday, Oct. 5, will be registration day for all qualified voters of Greene county. Registration will be at the usual voting places between the hours of 6 a. m. and 9 p. m. on that date.

One central location has been selected in White Hall for the registration which, according to John Stout, supervisor of the White Hall Township, will be at the City Fire Engine Room on East Sherman street.

Anyone having moved to this city and township during the past year or anyone having come of legal voting age or have changed residence from one precinct to another should be sure to register so as to be eligible to vote in the November general election.

Wolfson, Head Of $200 Million Empire, Seeking Control Of Montgomery Ward, Refutes Gibe 'All Muscle, No Brain'

WASHINGTON (AP)—On a crisp fall day in 1932, with footballs spiraling lazily above the University of Georgia gridiron, there was a good deal of rough banter about one of the players' getting low marks in the classroom.

"You hear about Wolfson?" "Yeah, here four years and still bucking freshman English and History."

"All muscle, no brains." "How 'bout that, Lou?" Lou Wolfson, star end on the team, took it with a grin, but inside it hurt.

"Those guys think they're pretty smart," he confided to a friend, jogging off the field a few minutes later. "But let me tell you—one of these days I'm going to make a lot of money and make them eat those words."

By the time Wolfson was 30 he had made his first million. Now, at 42, he heads a syndicate which controls a 200-million-dollar industrial empire.

And as his latest venture he is taking dead aim at the billion-dollar-a-year Chicago mail order colossus, Montgomery Ward & Co. with its huge nest egg of 263 million dollars in cash and total assets exceeding 717 million.

Some Wall Street experts think Wolfson is in for a fall when he grapples with hard-bitten Sewell Avery, 80-year-old board chairman of Montgomery Ward, in their heralded "battle of proxies" for control of the company next April 22.

But Wolfson looks forward to the battle with serene confidence. In his New York headquarters at Merritt, Chapman & Scott, the construction company he took over in 1949, he told me in his soft Dixie drawl:

"I'm confident or I wouldn't have gone into it."

He added: "I've never failed yet."

Wolfson, who first discovered the secret of money-making in his father's Florida junkyard, has long since given up keeping count of his private fortune. He claims he has lost all desire for greater wealth.

"Another million or so wouldn't mean anything," he said.

He likes to think of himself now in the role of a modern St. George out to slay the dragons of entrenched business greed—as he puts it—for the protection of thousands of small stockholders.

Critics bitterly disagree with Wolfson's description of his role as benevolent. They call him a scuttle-and-run operator with a penchant for buying control of financially sound companies, "milking" them of vital reserve funds by passing out lavish dividends and then tossing them aside.

Some industrialists shudder at the possibility of becoming the next target of what they describe as Wolfson's "raiding" tactics. By that they mean his method of quietly buying up control of a company's stock, then suddenly announcing he's the boss.

Wolfson does not seek to quiet their fears. Mildly, he spreads the word that he is always on the lookout for "interesting situations" in which to invest his mushrooming millions.

By latest count, he already controls 17 corporations, including Merritt, Chapman & Scott, one of the world's largest builders of bridges, tunnels and other heavy construction projects; New York Shipbuilding Co., the nation's third biggest shipyard, and a chain of 21 theaters in the South.

He has been investigated by the Justice Department, three congressional committees, a federal Grand Jury and other inquisitive agencies which have frankly marveled at some of his operations. Without exception, all have come up with either a clean bill of health or, at worst, a mild reproof.

After an investigation of Florida racketeers in mid-1950, Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) said his crime committee had found "no evidence that he (Wolfson) was engaged in any wrongdoing."

What had aroused the committee's curiosity, among other things, was that—

1. Wolfson contributed $154,000 to the 1948 gubernatorial campaign of his friend, Fuller Warren.

2. After the election, which put Warren in the governor's mansion, Wolfson got a 3½ million dollar contract to build the substructure of a bridge.

Wolfson testified he won the contract in a sealed bid competition. He swore he neither sought nor obtained any favors from Warren.

In 1949, when Wolfson bought control of Merritt, Chapman & Scott, the company had a net profit of $778,035. In 1953, the net soared to $3,496,690, the best in the firm's 34-year history. Gross sales jumped from $40,000,000 to $104,600,000.

Capt. Thomas A. Scott, 77, who was board chairman when Wolfson moved in, says admiringly:

"I can't speak highly enough of Lou Wolfson. He bought the stock. Anybody could have bought it. I was sitting on the board of directors when Wolfson was elected chairman, and if there was a spot of crookedness I'd have known it."

"Wolfson is an extremely able businessman who expects performance and gets it."

Wolfson is casually aloof toward the storms of criticism that have swirled around his meteoric career.

"Every company we move into has a history of mismanagement," he says. "No stockholder ever lost a nickel with me, and never will."

With an income that he says varies from half a million to a million dollars a year, Wolfson admittedly gets little pleasure out of it.

He works a 14-hour day, even between "deals" when he is supposedly relaxing with his pretty, dark-eyed Alabama-born wife, Florence, and their four children. At his $600,000 showplace home on Biscayne Bay in Miami Beach.

He likes sports but finds little time to play or watch them. At various times he has tried to buy the Washington Senators baseball team and the Washington Redskins pro football club.

He has never smoked in his life, he says, and rarely takes a drink except to be sociable. Hates the taste.

A big, trim man—he weighs 200 pounds and stands just a fraction under 6 feet 2"—Wolfson is ruggedly handsome with dark curly hair, luminous blue-gray eyes and a stubborn chin. He is a lifelong Democrat but voted for Eisenhower in 1952.

Associates say he is extremely shy, and modest. He invariably ascribes his success to the men around him, and there is no doubt of their fanatic devotion to him.

An incident in the Yale Bowl in 1932 put an abrupt end to Wolfson's dream of gridiron greatness. On the second-half kickoff Wolfson tackled a Yale stalwart with a thud that broke his shoulder and washed up his football career.

Disheartened, he quit college

NEW BERLIN

NEW BERLIN — The Island Grove Bunch club met Wednesday with Mrs. Dasher. Prizes went to Mrs. Christian Foster, Harry Smith, Mrs. Margaret Frank and Mrs. Suter. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Tilly in Springfield.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. John's Lutheran church met Thursday at the church. Mrs. Alvina Dueser was hostess and a potluck dinner was served at noon.

J. W. Foutch of Canton, Ohio has been visiting friends in New Berlin lately. The Foutch family formerly resided in New Berlin.

A. J. Reichart returned home Wednesday from St. John's hospital in Springfield where he was a patient for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Garth King are the parents of a son born Sept. 14. The father is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Garth King of New Berlin.

The Baptist Woman's Society met Thursday, Sept. 23, in the church. Mrs. Howard Perry gave the program.

Mrs. Tom Dunlap of Camp McCoy, Wis. is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marr. Her husband is awaiting discharge from service at Fort Sheridan.

LIGHT TO CHANGE

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Middleground light in Hampton Roads will have a new wink for seafarers after October when it becomes a completely automatic operation.

Lighthouse Tender Harvey Mayer and two enlisted Coast Guard men will be shifted from the 62-year-old light station to other assignments. The sun, rising and setting, will take over the duties of turning the light on and off. The present signal of 18 seconds light followed by a two second flash will be supplanted by a wink of light every two seconds.

The light will cost $2,000 a year to operate instead of $20,000.

TAX CHECKS STUDIED

CHICAGO (AP)—Federal revenue officials put the magnifying glass on one of every 19 income tax returns filed with the government during the fiscal year 1953. The ones selected for audit were those with the largest chance for mistakes.

The annual report by the Commerce Clearing House, a national reporting authority on tax and business law says an average of two of every five income tax returns examined for fraud resulted in recommendations for prosecution. This represents an increase over the previous year's ratio of one to three.

Waverly Grade Pupils Scheduled For Music Tests

WAVERLY—Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 27-28, all fifth grade pupils in the Grade school will be given instrumental music aptitude tests to determine their aptitude for and interest in membership in the Waverly Grade school band. The tests will also be given to any 6th, 7th or 8th grade student desiring to take them.

Arrangements have been made with the Ackerman Music Company, of Springfield, to assist in giving these tests. A representative will be present Tuesday evening, Sept. 28, at 7:30 p.m., in the school cafeteria. At this time the rental-purchase plan will be explained to any parents that care to attend.

Mr. Conlee, school band director, stresses the point that this rental plan is offered as a convenience to interested parents. Any band instrument, in good playing condition, is acceptable for use in the school band. Instrumental classes will begin Friday, October 1.

Personals

Mrs. Dora Edwards, Mrs. Bertha Miller of Waverly and Mrs. Grace Dodd of Leam spent the day Wednesday with their sister, Mrs. Ollie Jacobs, in her new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald R. Brown entered Memorial Hospital, Springfield Sunday and underwent surgery Tuesday morning. Brown is superintendent of Waverly schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorman Richard and Mrs. Leonard Brian returned home Saturday from a five day trip to Colorado. They went to Denver and other interesting places in the state.

Newton Turner returned home from Passavant Hospital, Jacksonville, Wednesday, where he had been a patient for a month following a broken hip.

LAD LIKES ANTIQUES

FARNHAM, Va. (AP)—While his playmates spent their pennies, nickels and dimes for things that appeal to most 10-year-olds, Elwood Schools saved his money to buy an antique—a buggy.

Mrs. A. P. Schools, Elwood's mother, says it took him about a year to accumulate the $5 purchase price. And he had to save a little more to buy paint to refurbish it.

The buggy—with shiny black body and wheels of Chinese red—is a novelty even in this rural area. Youngsters take turns providing the horsepower.

Elwood now is saving his money to buy a bicycle—the tandem type.

Longest, Toughest Drought In U.S. History Fails To Drive Texan From His 760 Acres

By ROBERT H. JOHNSON JR., ROARING SPRINGS, Tex. (AP)—When it gets so dry and hot the sap pops out of the mesquite trees and even the grass burrs die in the pasture, a man begins to wonder if it isn't time to give up. That's how it is with Charles Long. Sometimes it seems as if the longest, toughest drought in U.S. history has him almost licked. But Long says: "They tell me, the old timers, that you can't run from the drought. And I've done waited too long to start scuttin'."

Some of Long's neighbors have given up and moved out. He has seen others sell their land in desperation, then stay on farming as tenants. But most of them around here, like Long, are trying to stick it out.

The drought is four years old in parts of the southern Great Plains, and this year it spread east and west—as far as Georgia and Wyoming. Last spring, high winds scooped top soil in great clouds off land where farmers had forgotten or ignored the great lesson of the 1930s—plant cover must be kept on fields, or they will blow away. The Soil Conservation Service, which calls this drought the worst in U.S. history, said two new dust bowls had been carved out—one in West Texas and New Mexico, the other in southeastern Colorado and southwestern Kansas.

Rain fell soon after that and settled the dust, but the summer sun kept the drought strong in many areas, burning grain, corn, cotton and tobacco. The federal government has granted aid in the form of partial payment for livestock feed to drought-stricken parts of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri, Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico. Hardup farmers can get emergency crop loans from the Farmers Home Administration.

It's against this background of near disaster that Charles Long is fighting to save his land. Long's neighbors say he is a typical farmer of today's drought area. He is a far cry from the whipped-down men who fled the plains when the black dusts tore up their over-plowed farms back in the '30s.

He hasn't allowed his land to become barren, easy prey to the prairie winds. He lashed out the old dust bowl and depression, and in the good years made improvements. He put electricity in his comfortable house; he bought a tractor, a pickup truck and finally a car.

He knows more of the comforts of life now. And, if this drought should finally beat him, he stands to lose more. But he is fighting with determination, imagination and all the horse sense he has. This is what has happened to Long, a wiry man of 41—the average man of the great drought country.

He made only a fair crop in 1951. He did a little better in 1952 because vagrant thunderstorms wandered over part of his land and dropped heavy showers. "But where the rains missed that year in my fields east of town," he says, "I didn't make enough to say grace over."

Last year his luck ran out. No rain fell. His land was so parched that for the first time he couldn't even plant. He didn't make a dime, and he had to buy government emergency feed to keep his livestock going. He couldn't make his land payments.

Now, deep in debt, he is feeling lucky over half a cotton crop—a fourth of a bale an acre—and a feed crop that is so close to failure he may have to sacrifice his cattle herd.

"I never saw it no tougher," Long says, and he has lived on this land since he was 10 and farmed it for himself since 1930, when at the age of 17 he bought it from his father.

On his 760 acres, Long has 220 acres in cotton. The rest is in pasture and feed crops. He runs about 65 head of cattle and 35 head of sheep.

"But the only thing I have now that I'm real proud of," he says, "is my wife and boys."

Long and his wife have four blond sons—Charles and Carlisle, or Peewee, 17-year-old twins; Boyd, 14, and Rodney, 11.

The boys attend school here. Charles and Peewee star in football, basketball, baseball and track. Long hopes they can help solve their college tuition problem by winning scholarships.

Roaring Springs is a dusty town of about 435 people in the southern part of Motley County, which is at the bottom of the Texas Panhandle. The town got its name from some springs three miles away. Old timers say you used to be able to hear the roar of the springs clear in town. But you can't now: The springs only murmur over a 12-foot drop.

That's the only running water around here. The South Pease River and the Tongue River are sandy arroyos. The paved road to Roaring Springs has signs that say: "Slick When Wet." The signs haven't meant much recently.

The country is rolling and sandy. In good years, the hills are deep with grass, and among them the cotton and grain sorghums fields lie fine and green.

Now the grass is brown, and it makes a dry whisper when the hot wind stirs it.

Motley County is like Charles Long—typical of a land that has had too much sun and not enough rain for four years.

"A fellow always gets the notion of quitting when things get in reverse," Long says. "I'm in the hole a lot deeper than I ought to be. But I don't know anything except farming. I have a high school diploma but that don't mean anything nowadays, and I'm getting kind of old to try to take up a new line of work."

"This time," he says, "things seem a little worse because we've all got used to living better."

"You take back in the '30s, we burned coal oil lamps, heated with wood, used a kerosene cook stove, didn't have a refrigerator, didn't have a deep freeze."

"Now we put out 15 or 16 dollars a month for electricity and use butane for heat and tractor fuel. Things like that add up and you have to scratch for dollars."

"I'm on my winter pasture now," he says. "My feed crop will make just enough for a little short hay—filler, that's all. It won't last. When I have to go to buying feed, I don't know how I'll manage."

Mrs. Long sits at the kitchen table. "We'll have to sell off two-thirds of our stock, won't we Daddy?" she asks.

"I expect," Long says. "I can't see any point in buying high-priced feed for low-priced cattle. Even with government help again, I couldn't buy enough feed to keep

DON'T MAKE A PIG OF YOURSELF—That's what Blackie, a cocker-shepherd dog, owned by Gary North, of Independence, Kan., seems to be telling "Lizzie." But "Lizzie," the smallest of 14 Duroc pigs, doesn't seem to hear, as she enjoys her lunch from her adopted mother.

Scout Leaders, District Officials Meeting Sept. 27

On Monday evening Sept. 27 the District officers and Scout Leaders will meet at the Youth Center at 7:30 p.m. for their first official business meeting of the fall season.

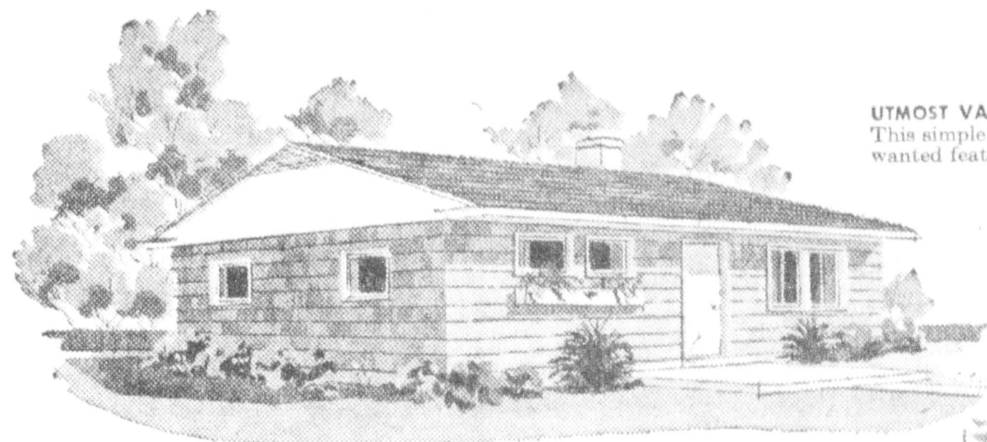

Clarendon Smith District Chairman and Robert Caldwell District Commissioner, report that they are expecting a good turn out of all of their staff. There is quite a bit of business on the agenda of the meeting, including for a big share of attention is the coming District annual pot luck dinner which is to be held on October 25th at the State Hospital.

Project assignments for the various district committees will also be made at this time.

Chandlerville Youth Fellowship Holds Program

CHANDLERVILLE — The Pilgrim Fellowship of the Chandlerville Congregational church met at the church Sunday afternoon, Sept. 19th at 2 p. m. with the youth fellowship president, Miss Patricia Erdmann, opening the meeting.

During the worship hour the group sang, "I Would Be True" and the P.F.'ers theme song, "Follow the Gleam." Miss Erdmann led in prayer and the secretary gave a reading of the minutes of the previous meeting. Devotions were conducted by Arnold Gerdes, who carried the group along with the subject that dealt with "unwanted nicknames."

Sunday, Sept. 26th, the group has planned an afternoon of fellowship with a program which will end with the group gathered around a campfire. A treasure hunt beginning at the church and a meeting will follow. This will be followed by a hayrack ride in charge of Arnold Gerdes.

The Litterberry Women's Club opened the year's activities with a family night at the Litterberry Christian Church recreation room. A bountiful potluck supper was enjoyed by the members and guests.

Mrs. Earl Myers and Mrs. Dewey Petefish were the committee in charge of arrangements.

The group participated in group singing led by Mrs. John McGinnis; Mrs. Georgia Martin, vice-president, presided over the meeting.

The main feature of the evening was a movie, "The Telephone Hour," which was shown by Robert Miller.

Fourteen members and 21 guests were present.

The October meeting will meet with Mrs. John McGinnis. Each is asked to bring an old or interesting quilt to this meeting—this will be an aid in the program.

Women's Club At Literberry Holds Meeting

The Literberry Women's Club opened its club year with an impressive ceremony honoring Past Presidents of the club. A table on the platform of the Civic Club room held a bouquet of white flowers and a scroll of the deceased Presidents' names. While Mrs. Paul B. Smith read excerpts from the minutes of their meetings, a lighted candle remained burning in their honor. The deceased presidents to whom tribute was paid with the lighted candle and lovely white flower arrangement, the reading of a poem and reciting of club accomplishments during their term of service were: Mrs. J. C. Lewis, Mrs. Henry Oakes, Mrs. H. C. Finney, Mrs. Sarah Carner, Mrs. Johanna Vanier, Mrs. Rosa Fimmigmeier, Mrs. Ella Morris and Mrs. Clara Bird.

All living presidents were contacted prior to the meeting and were asked to be present or send greetings. All responded with the exception of Mrs. William Hildebrand with the following sending written messages: Mrs. Bess O'Brien, Mrs. Tom Muntman, Mrs. Effie Burrus, Mrs. Benjamin Grote, Mrs. Charles Krusa, Mrs. Lee Korty, Mrs. R. L. McConnell and Mrs. J. A. Knoepfel. The written and spoken messages placed emphasis on the September topic "Advancing Security Thru Firm Foundations" in an interpretation of the purpose of the club to the new club members for this season, and recalled the club events to the others.

Recall Club Events

Each one of the past presidents, present in their turn of service, recalled important events and received a pink carnation corsage from Mrs. Wendell Brackett, now serving as the club president. She spoke on the future plans of the club and received her corsage from the immediate past president, Mrs. Harvey Vortman. Past presidents in attendance were Mrs. Guss Andres, Mrs. James Baird, Mrs. Floyd Hart, Mrs. Emma Thompson, Mrs. Lena Korty, Mrs. John Pine, Mrs. M. C. Parker, Mrs. T. B. Meehan, Mrs. William Kilver, Mrs. Paul Vannier, Mrs. Jane Woodson and Mrs. Harvey Vortman.

The business session consisted of routine business and the adoption of an estimated budget for the year.

Initiate 20 Members

Twenty new members were initiated into the club and honored by a beautiful candle lighting ceremony directed by Mrs. Floyd Hart. Who read an impressive guidance service. The new members are Mrs. M. The leader, Mrs. Harness, opened the meeting with prayer, the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Mrs. Beatrice Robertson read the treasurer's report and took up the sunshine offering for Mrs. James, the Sunshine chairman. Mrs. Willard told of the plans for the meeting of the women's association to be held Friday, Oct. 1 at 2:30 p. m. and Mrs. Harness appointed Mrs. Willsey as chairman of hostesses.

Presbyterial meeting at North-Mrs. Harness also announced the minister church Friday Oct. 8th. Miss Robertson gave the Bible study lesson, closing with a prayer.

The leader then presented Mrs. Harrold McCarty, the afternoon speaker, whose subject was India and her people, and described the people in many walks of life and their costumes. She also told of the climate in India with its extremes of heat and cold.

Following the program delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Harness and Mrs. Gollier, the hostesses.

Marvelous Costume For Fall

You see it everywhere—the good looking dress and jacket combination that bridges the season with charm and grace.
Step 1. If you decide on plaid material remember that pattern requirements given with your pattern do not allow for matching plaids.
Step 2. Buy 1 to 1 1/4 yard more, depending on the size of the plaid.
Pattern No. 8138 is in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20; 40, 42. Size 14, dress, 4 1/2 yards of 39-inch; jacket, short sleeves, 2 yards.
Send 30 cents in coins for this pattern to SUE BURNETT, Journal Courier, 372 W. Quincy street, Chicago 6, Illinois.

NEW WEAPON
NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — The Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station cheerfully agrees with complaining housewives that the fly population is bigger. It explains that two special varieties, both somewhat larger than the common housefly, have been imported to control the gypsy moth, an insect that defoliates trees.

UNWANTED PUSH
DETROIT (AP) — Twenty-two-year-old Joe Gonzales saw a car stalled on a busy Detroit street. He assumed it needed a push and started it along.
Just under way, the car veered off and hit another car. Seems the driver had run out of gas and was away buying it.

Retires

Mrs. Lenora Tomlinson

A familiar face is missing from the Illinois College campus this fall. Mrs. Lenora Tomlinson, after over a quarter century of teaching at the Hilltop campus, decided to retire late this summer. Modestly, it was her desire to leave Jacksonville without accolades from her former students, fellow faculty members, and her many friends.

Mrs. Tomlinson, who was professor of modern languages, joined the college faculty in 1925. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Byrn Mawr College and completed her graduate study at Northwestern University, the University of Chicago and Sorbonne, Paris.

She has been active in many civic and literary organizations in Jacksonville and elsewhere, in particular, the League of Women Voters, the American Association of University Women, Sorosis, the Association of Teachers of French, and the Association of Modern Language Teachers.

Mrs. Tomlinson is making her home at Phoenix Arizona. Marcel Muller, born in Belgium, whose appointment to the Illinois College faculty has been previously announced, teaches her former class-

LOVER BOY—Pete the parakeet showers his affection on this duck-shaped salt shaker. The lovebirds are owned by Mrs. Howard Wilson, of Industrial City, Mo., who says the romance is steady and sometimes violent. It seems Pete gets angry because the duck doesn't return his love.

QUEMOY BOSS—Gen. Liu Yu-chang is the commander of the Nationalist Chinese forces on Quemoy Island. The island has been under heavy shelling by the Communists on the Chinese mainland.

CLEANUP MAN—Judge Charles F. Murphy is the Code Administrator for the newly created Comic Magazine Association of America. He will resign his judgeship in New York to take over the job of seeing that the comic books are suitable for the nation's youth.

White Elephant Sale Planned By Bluffs' Legion

BLUFFS—Charles Wolford Post 441, American Legion met at Bluffs in regular session Monday evening with Robert Lovekamp, commander, presiding.

The principle business of the evening was the making of plans for a "White Elephant Sale" to be held the latter part of October. It was decided that anyone having articles needing repairs should contact the commander at phone 50 in Bluffs, the Bluffs Times office or take the articles to the Legion Hall.

The articles to be sold should be reported by the next meeting, October 4, so that the sale date can be set. The committee in charge is Robert Friesen, chairman, Harold Kilver, Harry Brown, William Chambers, Gilbert Rebbe and Bernard Beely.

Any contributions should be reported as soon as possible. The money is to be used for flooring for the Legion Building making it usable for roller skating.

Worth While Club Met Recently At McGee Home

The Worth While Club met recently with Mrs. Russell McGee. The president opened the meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag led by Mrs. Reat Moody. The minutes were read and approved. The roll call was answered by naming a city in Korea.

The program was presented by Mrs. Carl Massey who read a paper on Korea. Mrs. S. B. Strickler read a poem, "I Believe" and other clippings were read by different members and guests.

A weiner roast will be held Oct. 14th at the home of Mrs. Glen Strickler.

Guests present were Mrs. George Newberry, Mrs. Myrtle West, Mrs. Nellie Taylor and Mrs. Joe De Groot.

Delicious refreshments were served to the group.

"The Store That Confidence Built"

THE STORY OF MARTHA WAYNE

By WILSON SCRUGGS

PRISCILLA'S POP

By AL VERMEER

THE STORY: Private Detective Jim Dunn and his bride Nancy are posing as caretakers for their client, Mrs. Kit Carson, who needs some detective work to clear her of suspicion of murder. They are living at the Spire, part of the Carson estate, in Colorado. When he goes to make a fire in the morning, Jim notes the color of his secretary, Miss Wister, who is supposed to be in Denver, outside the cabin and in the basement on an elevator used to haul wood to the upstairs fireplace is a dead woman's body. The dead woman is Mrs. Yaelia Jones, sister-in-law of his client.

REMEMBERING the vulnerable kitchen door, Jim ran around the main house, climbed up the steep bank to the back path. The door swung open. It was unlocked. Mrs. Gelstrap sat at the kitchen table, her head resting on one arm stretched out on the porcelain surface. Jim touched her cheek lightly, found it warm. He could hear her heavy wheezy breathing and noticed now the reek of liquor which filled the room. An empty bottle lay on its side on the floor and shards of a glass were scattered. Jim shook the cook's fat shoulder. "Snap out of it! Come on. Wake up." She opened one small, blood-shot eye. "Whysamatter?" She closed the eyes again. Jim left her, hurried through the butler's pantry, the dining room, into the large living room. A light-time gust of wind had funneled down the stone chimney and puffed light wood ashes out into the room. The hearth and the near-by floor were covered evenly. Even the lid of the woodbox-window seat was smoothly covered with the fine out a faint humming. Quickly Jim slammed down the phone, went to the kitchen. He found a percolator, filled its top part liberally with coffee and lit the gas flame in the range. "Put some water in it," Dunn urged around. Mrs. Gelstrap had hoisted herself erect in the chair. Her little eyes were open. Jim obeyed, set the percolator over the pale blue flame. Mrs. Gelstrap waved her arm back and forth over her head. She rubbed the inside of the elbow joint. "Asleep," she explained. "Pins and needles. I must have dropped off." She looked around, spotted the empty bottle. She used both arms to hoist herself to her feet, went to the cupboard and managed to avoid the pieces of glass on the way. She took a new bottle from a well-filled shelf, opened it expertly and had a three-gurgle drink from its neck.

She said, "Ahhh. Now maybe you're doing here?" "Where's Miss Wister?" Jim demanded. "Miss Wister? What are you talking about? I don't like to ride this time of day. I'm sure. I know my Miss Wister, I'm sure. There was a malicious sparkle in her eyes. "There's a dead woman in the basement," Jim said bluntly. Mrs. Gelstrap had been in the process of reaching again for the bottle she had set on the table. The tiny hand at the end of the fat arm stopped with fingers still in a grasping curl. "Dead—no! Tell me it isn't Kit!" There was no doubting the sincerity of the wail. "No," Jim said. "Not your employer."

Mrs. Gelstrap drew a long, shuddering breath which pulled her thick lips into her open mouth. She darted a sideways, cunning look at Jim, took a quick drink. "Not Mrs. Kit. But—where is she?" "She's asleep," Dunn said. "Drugged," he said. (To Be Continued)

Cynthia Tomlovich Honored Guest At Birthday Party

A party honoring the 9th birthday of Cynthia Jo Tomlovich was given by her mother, Mrs. Jos. Tomlovich at the home of an aunt, Mrs. Clarence Belzer, 1310 S. Clay. Games were played with prizes going to Miss Jane Henley and Miss Karla Warcup and each guest was given a balloon and a grab bag gift. A pink, white and blue color scheme was carried out in the table decorations. Delicious refreshments of cake, ice cream, nut cups and punch were served. Group pictures were taken after which the guest of honor opened her many lovely gifts. Hostesses were the lovely gifts of mothers, aunts, Mrs. Francis Hyatt, Mrs. Clarence Belzer and Mrs. Irene Evans. Guests at the party were Jane Henley, Barbara Withee, Linda Smith, Susan Chumley, Susan Walker, Karla Warcup, Vicki Jarvis, Candy Willey, Sherry Carver, Alma Kay Webster, Jerry Schilling, Janet Cully, Norma Fairfield, Gloria Dickman, Cynthia Fairburn, Antionette Tomlovich, Max Eddie Belzer and the guest of honor. BOTTLE BABY—Seven-year-old Judy Reineman gives a thoroughbred foal a drink of milk by using a baby bottle. Judy's parents own a horse farm near Lexington, Ky.

MOM'S HELPER—Before mother leaves the house she can now leave instructions for her children, husband or maid, by using this disc recorder which also doubles as a phonograph. One disc can be erased and used over again some 10,000 times. It's on display in New York City.

GETTING 'EM IN VIEW—A Nationalist Chinese artilleryman on Quemoy Island sights his weapon on the Amoy area of the Red Chinese mainland. Chiang Kai-shek's forces have been retreating against the Reds who have been blasting Quemoy.

NOW, BRING ON THE STEAK—Laddie Krocok gets some help from Barbara Polivka as they measure the giant mushroom that Krocok found near Forest Park, Ill. It measured 63 inches in circumference and weighed 16½ pounds. Laddie also found four other large ones at the same time.

WAVERLY—The disposition of Vancil Temple, one of the old landmarks of this area, is to be discussed at a meeting Sunday, Sept. 26, at 3 p.m. Anyone who has worked for, or been interested in, Vancil Temple, is urged to attend.

The old church, although kept in a good state of repair, has not been used for some time.

Mrs. Fred Herr gives the following information concerning the church Vancil Temple was built in 1887-1888 and dedicated simply to "the worship of God and the good of Humanity."

The idea of a non-denominational church was the creation of its founder and guiding force, Edmund Vancil, pioneer settler of North Macoupin county. Mr. Vancil, who came to Macoupin county in 1818, was 87 years old and he gave the land and two-thirds of the cost of the building of the temple. The remaining cost of building was donated by other trusted members of the community.

The building was one of the largest and most beautifully proportioned country churches in this area, having a 70 foot steeple which became a landmark of the community.

For many years union Sunday School services were held at Vancil Temple, which attendance often reached the one hundred mark. Memorial services on Decoration Day filled the church to its capacity of 400 people.

In addition, any denomination, "regardless of what its name," could hold meetings in the building at no cost except for the lighting and heat.

Six generations of the Vancil family have lived within sight of the church and 21 direct descendants of Edmund Vancil still live in or own property in the Vancil Temple community. Mrs. L. G. Brown of Modesto is the only remaining member of the third generation.

Well Trained, In Good Physical Condition, College Grads

Editor's Note—The men who guard presidents must be constantly alert. And the Secret Service men protecting the Eisenhower family must also be able to golf, play with children and look at ease at formal parties. Here's a behind-the-scenes look at the organization—and the men—charged with the security of the United States' first family.

By DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON (AP)—Just about every six hours around the clock someone in the United States sends a threat which could mean that the lives of President Eisenhower and his family are in danger.

It might be only the babbling of a harmless drunk.

It might be merely a display of temper in a political argument. It might be a crank.

But the United States Secret Service painstakingly checks each one. For it could be a cold statement of intent by a fanatic who thinks he can gain his end by killing the President or injuring someone close to him. Such fanatics killed Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley. And there were attempts on the life of Jackson, F. D. Roosevelt and Truman.

The Eisenhower family are among the most closely guarded families in the world today. It's the Secret Service's job to see no harm comes to them—and no President has been killed since the Secret Service took over White House security in 1901 after McKinley's death. Theodore Roosevelt was the first President to be given this protection.

The Eisenhowers appear to accept with good grace this constant presence of security guards. They don't grumble, at least openly about the men at their elbows wherever they leave the privacy of their living quarters.

As for the three Eisenhower grandchildren (Dwight David II, 6, Barbara Anne, 5, and Susan, 2), White House sources say they look on their Secret Service guards as playmates and welcome pals as they romp around the White House grounds. The agents accompany them out of town, too.

One White House aide who asked not to be quoted by name said:

"Ike and Mamie don't mind having the Secret Service men around. The agents stay in the background and as a matter of fact you'd hardly know they're around they are so unobtrusive."

"Ike got used to having guards around him while he was in the Army. He was heavily guarded in North Africa and later as Supreme Commander of the Allied Forces in Europe. Sometimes he even had a guard inside his office."

"He knows the family must be guarded, too. You can't take a chance on having harm come to one of those kids."

Remember when Ike's son, Maj. John Eisenhower, was with the Army in Korea? Well, the Secret Service and the Army brass weren't worried so much about John being a battle casualty. He had to take his chances on that along with the other guys.

"What worried them was that John might be captured by the Chinese Reds and held as a hostage. I would have been a terrible thing to have happened on the eve of Ike's inauguration—or any other time."

The law doesn't protect the agency "shall" or "must" protect a President, but that's pretty much the way it has been interpreted. Past Presidents, just as Eisenhower has, have accepted the security arrangements as a necessary thing.

President Calvin Coolidge, in fact, struck up a close personal friendship with Col. Edmund Starling, who was chief of the White House detail during the Coolidge administration. The President often invited Starling into his living quarters for a snack, a cigar or a talk.

While Eisenhower is not on such intimate terms with the agents around him, he does have an extremely friendly relationship with James Joseph Rowley, the 45-year-old chief of the White House Secret Service detail who has been helping guard presidents for 15 years.

Rowley's cubbyhole office is just inside the west wing door of the White House and only a few paces from the President's office.

On Rowley's wall is a framed paragraph from a description of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln by John Wilkes Booth in the box of the old Ford Theater in Washington.

The excerpt reads:

"When John Wilkes Booth approached me he was stopped by the sentinel and told that he could not enter. This is the President's box," said Forbes. "No one is permitted to enter. I am a senator," responded Booth. "Mr. Lincoln has sent for me. I must see him on important business." His gentlemanly and genteel appearance deceived the sentinel, who allowed him to pass to the President's box."

Rowley sees these words every day that he sits at his desk.

"They are my reminder," Rowley says, "that no matter how smooth and well-dressed a man may be, there may be murder in his heart. You can't look at a man and judge him by whether he's poorly dressed and appears to be dangerous. We've got to watch everyone who is not well known; anybody started shooting."

Rowley is almost always at the President's shoulder when he leaves the White House. The side on which he walks depends on where the doors and windows are—and the crowd. Around them are other agents whose eyes never leave the crowd, the traffic movement or buildings which could offer a refuge for an assassin.

In one way, guarding Eisenhower is a little less trying than guarding Truman—because Eisenhower doesn't bounce out of bed at 5:30 a.m. for those early morning walks Truman enjoyed so much.

But then the Eisenhower golf poses a security problem which hadn't confronted the Secret Service since the days of Warren G. Harding.

If there are any experts on the Eisenhower golf game, then they are the Secret Service men who follow him when he plays at the Burning Tree Country Club in Washington, the Augusta, Ga., National Country Club, or the Cherry Hills Country Club in Denver.

Three of his favorite courses, three of his favorite courses, are fact moving about the course to protect Eisenhower. Some carry rifles concealed in golf bags. Another will haul a bag holding a walkie-talkie radio which is in contact with other agents parked near the clubhouse in the big 1938 Cadillac armored touring car known as the "Queen Mary."

When Eisenhower leaves the White House for a vacation trip or a speaking engagement, such as his recent appearance at the Illinois State Fair at Springfield, Secret Service men have gone out weeks in advance to make security arrangements.

If he goes by train, the tracks, bridges, trestles and tunnels are inspected for safety. Buildings are checked along the route, and a Secret Service U. S. E. Baughman, check is made on hotel personnel.

There's an agent to watch over the preparation of an food.

Big crowds, of course, are the agents' worst bugaboo and in such a situation they draw their lines fencers and forgers, but the agents move closely around the President, also are trained to help guard the not only to protect him from an assassin but to prevent any accidental injury.

On one occasion, newsmen who accompanied Truman to a theater found they had been provided with a choice box seat just to the left of the presidential box. One reporter voiced his appreciation of this thoughtfulness to a member of the White House detail.

The agent grinned and said: "They were good seats, weren't they? And you guys provided a nice screen for the President."

The roughest assignment for the Secret Service since the 1952 election was to get Eisenhower (then President-elect) into and out of Korea safely. The world knew he was going to Korea and the trick was to get him out of the country secretly and into Korea before Red plotters could organize any well planned attempt on his life.

Eisenhower and those who accompanied him were sneaked out of New York before dawn on Dec. 6, 1952, in the most elaborate cover-up operation that the Secret Service perhaps ever conducted. Rowley and his men even went with Eisenhower into the combat zone.

But they shuddered when Korea's President Syngman Rhee proposed that Eisenhower and those around him appear on the same platform in a huge rally in Seoul.

This would have meant that on a single platform in a wartime country there would have been the President-elect, Adm. Arthur Radford, now chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Charles E. Wilson, now secretary of defense, Herbert Brownell, now attorney general, Jim Hagerity, now presidential press secretary, Gen. Omar Bradley, then chairman of the Joint Chiefs, Gen. Mark W. Clark, then commanding U. N. forces in the Far East, and Gen. James A. Van Fleet, then commanding the 8th Army in Korea.

"Can you imagine putting all those people on one platform in a city which must have been loaded with enemy agents?" a White House aide said later. "Why, one grenade tossed onto the platform could have wiped out a big part of the new administration's top command."

Rowley helped sidetrack this proposal.

The man who has the ultimate responsibility in directing presidential security is the chief of the Secret Service, U. S. E. Baughman, 44, a native of Chicago, who has 245 agents scattered around the country with about 30 in the White House detail.

Most of the agency's work is devoted to tracking down counter-agents' worst bugaboo and in such a situation they draw their lines fencers and forgers, but the agents move closely around the President, also are trained to help guard the not only to protect him from an assassin but to prevent any accidental injury.

"Our men consider it a great honor to guard the President," Baughman says, "but any idea that they had been provided with a choice box seat just to the left of the presidential box. One reporter voiced his appreciation of this thoughtfulness to a member of the White House detail."

The agent grinned and said: "They were good seats, weren't they? And you guys provided a nice screen for the President."

Agents must be college graduates in good physical condition and with an interest in investigative work. After one year in the field, an agent goes to the Secret Service school for a general investigative course—and then he is taught the tricks of guarding the President, so that every agent is able to move in and work with the White House detail at any time.
